Bricker Says U.S. Equals Red A-Might

Bricker Bites Buffalo

The silver-haired senior senator from Ohio, John W. Bricker, last night warned Russia the United States is "well abreast" of the Soviet Union in development of nuclear weapons. He spoke before more than 500 GOP buffalo eaters at the Pickaway County coliseum.

Bricker, one of the three remaining original members of the Congressional Atomic Energy Commission, stated the U. S. was equal to Russia in the manufacture of the 6,000 mile-range intercontinental ballistic missile and the 1,500 mile intermediate-range missile.

The buffalo barbecue covered dish dinner was sponsored by the local Republican Party. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Dr. G. D. Phillips, executive committee member.

The Mt. Sterling native stated, "The most important responsibility of the U. S. is to use this mighty weapon to keep the peace of the world, so there shall never come to the world a suicidal holocaust—the inevitable result of a nuclear war."

* * *

HE CONTINUED saying, "It is the grave task of the government to stay strong enough that nobody dare attack us and to defeat them if they do."

Bricker reiterated the theme of the slate of local, state and national candidates that the GOP must get out and vote as well as urging all independents to vote Republican. The GOP is running scared due to the heavy Democratic registration.

Bricker, running for reelection for a third term in Washington, did not mention the controversial right-to-work issue. Informed sources said he will not take a stand on this matter until he presents a major labor speech, possibly around October 15. His press secretary, Kenneth A. Meckstroth, said Bricker had no comment to make on the Sherman Adams resignation.

He did make reference to the fact that United Auto Worker's Walter Reuther should not be permitted to control and ruin Ohio's industry as he had Michigan's." This was met by a loud response from his audience.

Bricker, a member of the banking and currency committee, blamed the Democratic controlled 85th Congress for throwing the country into a currency crisis."

He said the Democrats had devalued the dollar 49 cents since 1939, due to their practices. "The country is in a business recession because individual production is catching up with wages; savings are not equal to capital expenditures, and government spending is much too high." He stated the Democrats starting with Roosevelt, taught the people of this country to spend, not save, and it is finally catching up with all of us.

* * *

HE CONCLUDED by stating he believed President Dwight Eisenhower was determined and consecrated to keeping the peace of the world and he, Bricker, would do everything within his power to see that the "president's peace program would be carried out.

Dr. Phillips introduced the slate of candidates. William J. Green, who furnished the buffalo, said a few words and then asked, "Is anyone hungry?" There was plenty of buffalo left over. Green is a candidate for Representative to the Ohio General Assembly from Pickaway County.

Clarence Maxson, candidate for county commissioner, was also on hand. Judge William Ammer, incumbent candidate for county common pleas judge, spoke on behalf of the judicial GOP candidates. He then emphasized that he was a hometown native, born, raised and still living in the same home here.

Willard D. Campbell, candidate for the Ohio Supreme Court, Cambridge, quoted from an old Gold Medal Flour motto in regards to his election stating, "Eventually, Why Not Now".

David Morgan, incumbent candidate for junior state senator from Pickaway and Franklin Counties, stated that the country was in the hands of unions, who were controlled by gangsters and hoodlums. He continued stating that the Democrats were controlled by these unions.

Robert Shaw, incumbent candidate for senior state senator from Pickaway and Franklin Counties, related that the GOP must offset the heavy Democratic registration by getting every Republican and independent to vote.

* * *

ELMER BARRETT, candidate for representative to Congress asked the crowd to send an engineer to Washington D. C. He said there wasn't an engineer in the 85th Congress.

Roger Tracy, incumbent candidate for state treasurer said that although the Ohio Legislature spent one and a half billion dollars last year the state still was 37 million dollars in the black. "Both the Legislature and state officials were of the GOP party," related Tracy.

Judge William D. Radcliff, unopposed candidate for the 4th District Court of Appeals, spoke on the behalf of Gov. C. William O'Neill. He said that during his first administration, O'Neill had miscalculated but had been humble enough to admit it.

Stanley N. Melvin spoke on behalf of William Saxbe, incumbent candidate for attorney general. He stated that Saxbe had collected more than two and one half million dollars in back taxes during each of his two years in office.

Ted W. Brown made an appearance but said he preferred the crowd to hear Sen. Bricker instead of himself.

Phillips then introduced Bricker stating he was introducing a statesman not a politician. He said a politician was a man who worries about the next election and a statesman was a man who worried about the next generation.

Last night concluded a republican tour of the above candidates of the 10th Congressional District which took the group through Lancaster, Logan, Jackson, McArthur and here.

Vote Due on Water Rate Law

Nine referendum petitions bearing 462 signatures calling for a vote on the water rate increase passed by City Council on September 2 were filed this morning with City Auditor Mrs. Marvine Turner.

The referendum petitions, filed by James I. Smith III, 320 Cedar Heights Rd., will delay effectiveness of the water rate increase law until the voters have a chance to vote on the issue. The issue will go before the public Nov. 3, 1959.

According to City Solicitor Robert H. Huffer, the water rate law went into effect 10 days after its passage by City Council. Mayor Ben Gordon did not sign the ordinance. The law remained in effect until today.

Council passed the ordinance boosting water rates 67 per cent, so that the water department might determine if such an increase would finance a proposed $800,000 expansion and improvement of the municipal water system.

* * *

THE $800,000 program calls for construction of water softening facilities, iron removal equipment, a new 750,000-gallon elevated storage tank, plus a new water works building to house the equipment.

A majority of voters is needed to pass the water rate increase law. Auditor Turner must hold the petitions 10 days before certifying them to the Pickaway County Board of Elections for submission to the voters of Circleville.

Mrs. Turner has until 90 days before the 1959 general election to file the petitions with the election board. The certification of eligible signatures is the duty of the City Auditor. Approximately 430 signatures are needed to validate the referendum.

Petitioners calling for a vote on the matter are James I. Smith; Paul B. Brown, 479 N. Court St., and John D. Robinson, 679 E. Mound St. The petitions were filed with one day to spare before the 30-day filing period ended.

Segregationists Try New Angle To Skirt Court

Arkansas Corporation Acknowledges Legal Ban in Fund Appeal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock Private School Corp. appealed today for public contributions, in money and buildings, to operate the high schools as private, segregated institutions.

Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the corporation, announced the new plan at a news conference.

He said a "study and survey of buildings and facilities" already is under way. Raney said the new plan is contingent on the ruling, scheduled Monday, of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

"If the court enjoins our use of the high school buildings, leased from the Little Rock School District, we will immediately begin school in other quarters," Raney said.

The cost of operating the four high schools, on the present basis, is $19,000 a week, Supt. of Schools Virgil Blossom said.

In Virginia, Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. said he hopes to move within the next few days to reopen nine schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville and Warren County.

A federal court order prevented the Little Rock Private School Corp. from opening the schools Tuesday, and a source close to Gov. Orval E. Faubus declared, "We are at the end of the line."

Faubus, who closed the schools Sept. 12 pending a vote on integration, said "a way will be found" and urged the people to stand firm in the fight to maintain segregation. A referendum Saturday revealed 72 per cent of the voters backing separate schools for Negroes and white pupils.

More than 70 high school teachers agreed unanimously to comply with the court order blocking the private school measure. Their lawyers had advised them that they are still under contract to the School Board and not to the private corporation.

The board leased the buildings to the corporation, but the Court of Appeals at Omaha directed it to retain control until a three-judge panel hears the case in St. Louis Monday.

Almond's statement about reopening the nine Virginia schools, all shut down by the governor after being ordered by federal judges to admit Negroes, came at a news conference.

At almost the same time, the governor got a request from the Norfolk City Council that he reopen six schools there and operate them on a segregated basis under the police power of the state.

The Council acted under Virginia's massive resistance laws, which require the governor to take the action if the city declares an emergency and makes the request.

Almond would not comment on the Norfolk action, and he refused to say what move he would make toward getting the schools open again.

Principal Boone Hall, who ordered the indefinite suspension at the 650-pupil school, said about 100 boys and girls yelled, threw rocks which broke "one or two windows" and caused a general disturbance outside the school this morning.

As far as he could tell, he said, no one was injured.

"We had the state police and the local policemen here," he said at mid-morning. "They've all left the grounds now."

O'Neill Tags Right to Work As Top Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill announced today that he intends to make what he calls "the controversial right to work constitutional amendment" a major issue in his campaign for reelection. He said he will urge the people of Ohio to support the proposal.

"I am going to speak out on it," O'Neill said in a statement issued through his press secretary. "The widespread intimidation which has been reported to me in correspondence I have received since I have announced my position has aroused me to the point that I must speak out emphatically."

He said he is considering reporting to the people on a statewide radio or television hookup, but that no definite arrangements have been made yet.

At a press conference Sept. 22, O'Neill announced that "personally, as a citizen of Ohio . . . I am going to vote for the right to work amendment."

But he said at that time that others should make up their own minds about the proposal. He also said then that he would not campaign directly for the amendment, but that he might express his views on the issue as his campaign progresses.

Ouster Asked For Sheriff In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mahoning County Prosecutor Thomas A. Beil today sent Gov. C. William O'Neill a notice of misconduct naming Sheriff Paul J. Langley.

The prosecutor cited a newspaper story concerning reports that convicted gambler S. Joseph (Sandy) Naples has been spending weekends away from county jail.

Beil said the governor can initiate removal proceedings against Langley. But the governor has said he needs a formal notice of misconduct.

The sheriff, meanwhile, handed an indefinite suspension to Deputy Frank R. Naples for showing preferential treatment.

Frank is a cousin of Sandy Naples. The latter was photographed by the Youngstown Vindicator entering the jail garage from a street Monday at 8:35 a.m. Naples still has a month to serve on a six-month sentence.

The Vindicator quoted Frank Naples as saying he chauffeured Sandy to Sandy's residence to get a change of underwear. Sandy, however, was quoted as saying he had gone to see a doctor.

Slick Finish Given This Hen

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Claude Brawner put a nice fat hen in the oven to bake, then dashed off to the beauty parlor.

When she returned, she took down a pint jar which she thought held bacon drippings and set about basting the bird.

Ever taste varnished hen?

Arab Envoys Balk at Terms For Pullout

A spokesman for the United Arab Republic made clear that, if the troops don't leave quickly President Nasser's government will toss the matter before the General Assembly.

This echoed a warning delivered to the Assembly earlier by the Sudan that, unless a clear-cut troop withdrawal announcement is made, it will ask for a full scale debate.

The U.A.R. spokesman said it was not clear from Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's Middle East report when and under what conditions the Americans and British will get out.

"This is a major question which keeps the Middle East in unrest," he declared.

The eight-nation Arab League, meeting in Cairo today, was expected to go over the Hammarskjold report and map out a course of action.

King Hussein of Jordan announced today that British troops will begin leaving his country Oct. 20. He did not announce any conditions. He complained, however, that hostile propaganda from other Arab countries against Jordan had not yet ceased.

Chinese Reds Angered by Sidewinders

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China today seized on the use of U.S. Sidewinder missiles by Nationalist Chinese jets to whip up a new hate-America frenzy. The Reds hinted they may use guided missiles in "blow for blow" retaliation.

The Peiping regime's official propaganda organs loosed a stream of articles describing the "fresh storm of anger" among Red China's 600 millions over the "outrageous crime"—the destruction of a Chinese plane by a Sidewinder.

The newspaper Ta Kung Pao was quoted as saying, "Only by dealing unrelenting and heavy counterblows at the aggressors and severely punishing those guilty of the provocation of firing the guided missiles can peace be safeguarded."

Ike Appeals Anew For Integration

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today called on all Americans to comply with the Supreme Court's school integration rulings lest there be "grave consequences" to the nation.

Eisenhower sounded the call—to both public officials and private citizens alike—at a news conference.

He was asked whether, in the light of the court's decisions, Arkansas and Virginia should reopen their closed schools on an integrated basis without being forced into it by the federal government.

Eisenhower had anticipated such questions. He pulled out a prepared statement and read it.

"The Supreme Court, in its opinion rendered Monday, once again has spoken with unanimity on the matter of equality of opportunity for education in the nation's public schools. It is encumbent upon all Americans, public officials and private citizens alike, to recognize their duty of complying with the rulings of the highest court in the land. Any other course, as I have said before, would be fraught with grave consequences to our nation," it said.

"Americans have always been proud that their institutions rest on the concept of equal justice under law. We must never forget that the rights of all of us depend upon respect for the lawfully determined rights of each of us. As one nation, we must assure to all our people, whatever their color creed, the enjoyment of their constitutional rights and the full measure of the law's protection.

"We must be faithful to our constitutional ideas and go forward in good faith with the unremitting task of translating them into reality."

After reading this statement, Eisenhower said that since the matter was still in litigation he would not have anything further to say on it at this time.

It was the President's first news conference in five weeks—his first since Aug. 27. These other matters were touched on:

FAR EAST—Eisenhower said that as an old soldier he believes it is not a good thing for the Chinese Nationalists to have concentrated so much of their military power on the offshore island of Quemoy. He added a comment that allies do have differences—family differences — and it becomes necessary to try to resolve different points of view.

As for the Far East crisis in general, the President said the basic issue is to avoid retreat in the face of force. He also said the United States wants to avoid use of force.

If we abandon those principles, Eisenhower added, we are going to suffer.

As for U.S. military power in the Western Pacific, the President said our weaponry and forces there are in good shape.

He said he is not too sure that demilitarization of Quemoy could solve the current crisis. But a cease-fire, he said, would provide new opportunity to negotiate.

ADAMS — Eisenhower said he did not ask anyone to obtain the resignation of Sherman Adams as his chief aide. There have been published reports that Eisenhower delegated to Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn the job of telling Adams he had to go.

The President said Adams resigned voluntarily—that he personally never asked Adams to quit.

POLITICS—Eisenhower said he has heard talk of Republican apathy, of sitting on hands and complacency in the congressional campaigns. To him, he said, such an attitude is incomprehensible.

He spoke of the philosophy of his administration—he called it a middle of the road and stay out of the gutter doctrine—and said the record of his almost six years in office provides a good foundation for GOP campaigning this year.

Eisenhower said he doesn't see how any Republican candidate could be anything less than enthusiastic about the party's chances.

Hitting out against voter apathy, Eisenhower said that if the Republicans failed to help with their time, brains and money, then their cause will be lost.

HEALTH — The President announced he will enter the Army's Walter Reed Hospital this weekend for his annual physical checkup. He said with a smile he was making the announcement in advance so that no one would think he was ill again.

SPUTNIK—With the first anniversary of Russia's initial launching of a Sputnik coming up on Saturday, Eisenhower paid new tribute to the Soviet scientists who made the launching possible.

But the President also noted that in the last year the United States has placed four satellites in orbit. He stressed that in the case of this country the motive was primarily scientific achievement as part of the International Geophysical Year.

Great Southpaws To Open Series

MILWAUKEE AP — Two of baseball's greatest lefthanders—Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and New York's Whitey Ford - were expected to make the opener of the 1958 World Series a sizzling pitchers' duel today.

Despite the fact that the Series was opening in Milwaukee and Ford had not won a single of his five Series triumphs away from Yankee Stadium, the Yankees ruled 5½-5 to win the first game and 7-5 to capture the Series.

Precedent was against the Braves. No National League champion has been able to win two October classics in succession since the New York Giants whipped Miller Huggins' Yankees in 1921 and 1922.

Since then the Yankees have won 17 world championships in 21 tries. They bowed to the Braves, however, in the lastone, in seven games.

Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, still smarting from that loss, blamed it on some bum advice he had received from National League friends. He vowed this time to follow his own judgment.

"Them fellers sure gave me a bum steer," he said Tuesday night. "They told me (Eddie) Mathews couldn't field and that he was just a fair runner. They said (Lew) Burdette couldn't beat us. Well, you know what Lew did against us last year and he won 20 games this year."

He said, "This time I'm going to use my own judgment. I got some ideas of my own. If I'm going to lose I might as well blame myself, not anybody else. But I don't expect to lose. I did enough losing to those guys last year."

The Spahn-Ford duel was a rematch of last year's opener, won by the 29-year-old Yankee 3-1. The two didn't meet again, although Spahn won his next start and Ford lost his, a 1-0 heartbreaker to Burdette.

Stengel was doubly anxious to win this Series because another triumph would give him seven, tying him with Joe McCarthy, another Yankee pilot, with seven victories, a record. Haney, however, was out to become the first National League manager to beat Stengel twice.

Haney, ordinarily a man who says little, has even less to say about the Series.

"I think we'll win, naturally, but it's going to be a tough struggle all the way. I think we're as evenly matched as two teams can be. Why, we even finished with the same won and lost record. I look for breaks to decide it. Naturally, I hope the breaks fall our way."

Cancer Society Plans New Survey

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Cancer Society plans a survey of more than a million persons in an effort to pinpoint any relationship between personal habits and cancer.

The study will not be concerned primarily with smoking habits but will include them along with questions about diet, exercise, sleep, occupation, physical complaints, health history and other factors.

Consumption of alcoholic beverages, fried foods, tea, coffee and certain soft drinks; X-ray treatments, baldness, nervous tensions, height, weight and heredity are among topics about which questions will be asked.

Frost Possible Here Tonight

The Weatherman today issued a warning that the first frost of the year might descend upon Pickaway County tonight as the temperature is expected to drop to 30 degrees.

The lowest temperature since last winter came Sunday when the thermometer fell to 41 degrees and local residents began burning their home fires.

The local gas company has been flooded with calls to have the gas men check their furnaces. This service has been discontinued by the gas company. Independent furnace men must be called to check for possible gas and carbon monoxide leaks.

Due to changing early fall weather, when mornings and evenings are cool and the mid-days get quite warm, many persons have contacted their first fall colds.

The county is 1.79 inches above normal in rainfall for the year and 1.06 inches ahead of the monthly average for September. Last night the county experienced a drizzly cold rain of 0.14 inches.

THE $800,000 program calls for construction of water softening facilities, iron removal equipment, a new 750,000-gallon elevated storage tank, plus a new water works building to house the equipment.

A majority of voters is needed to pass the water rate increase law. Auditor Turner must hold the petitions 10 days before certifying them to the Pickaway County Board of Elections for submission to the voters of Circleville.

Mrs. Turner has until 90 days before the 1959 general election to file the petitions with the election board. The certification of eligible signatures is the duty of the City Auditor. Approximately 430 signatures are needed to validate the referendum.

Petitioners calling for a vote on the matter are James I. Smith; Paul B. Brown, 479 N. Court St., and John D. Robinson, 679 E. Mound St. The petitions were filed with one day to spare before the 30-day filing period ended.

O'Neill Tags Right to Work As Top Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill announced today that he intends to make what he calls "the controversial right to work constitutional amendment" a major issue in his campaign for reelection. He said he will urge the people of Ohio to support the proposal.

"I am going to speak out on it," O'Neill said in a statement issued through his press secretary. "The widespread intimidation which has been reported to me in correspondence I have received since I have announced my position has aroused me to the point that I must speak out emphatically."

He said he is considering reporting to the people on a statewide radio or television hookup, but that no definite arrangements have been made yet.

At a press conference Sept. 22, O'Neill announced that "personally, as a citizen of Ohio . . . I am going to vote for the right to work amendment."

But he said at that time that others should make up their own minds about the proposal. He also said then that he would not campaign directly for the amendment, but that he might express his views on the issue as his campaign progresses.

Ouster Asked For Sheriff In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mahoning County Prosecutor Thomas A. Beil today sent Gov. C. William O'Neill a notice of misconduct naming Sheriff Paul J. Langley.

The prosecutor cited a newspaper story concerning reports that convicted gambler S. Joseph (Sandy) Naples has been spending weekends away from county jail.

Beil said the governor can initiate removal proceedings against Langley. But the governor has said he needs a formal notice of misconduct.

The sheriff, meanwhile, handed an indefinite suspension to Deputy Frank R. Naples for showing preferential treatment.

Frank is a cousin of Sandy Naples. The latter was photographed by the Youngstown Vindicator entering the jail garage from a street Monday at 8:35 a.m. Naples still has a month to serve on a six-month sentence.

The Vindicator quoted Frank Naples as saying he chauffeured Sandy to Sandy's residence to get a change of underwear. Sandy, however, was quoted as saying he had gone to see a doctor.

A-Sub Still Submerged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower announced today that the nuclear submarine Seawolf has been submerged 54 days and is still going strong. He said the previous record for underwater travel was 31 days.

Slick Finish Given This Hen

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Claude Brawner put a nice fat hen in the oven to bake, then dashed off to the beauty parlor.

When she returned, she took down a pint jar which she thought held bacon drippings and set about basting the bird.

Ever taste varnished hen?

Arab Envoys Balk at Terms For Pullout

A spokesman for the United Arab Republic made clear that, if the troops don't leave quickly President Nasser's government will toss the matter before the General Assembly.

This echoed a warning delivered to the Assembly earlier by the Sudan that, unless a clear-cut troop withdrawal announcement is made, it will ask for a full scale debate.

The U.A.R. spokesman said it was not clear from Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's Middle East report when and under what conditions the Americans and British will get out.

The eight-nation Arab League, meeting in Cairo today, was expected to go over the Hammarskjold report and map out a course of action.

King Hussein of Jordan announced today that British troops will begin leaving his country Oct. 20. He did not announce any conditions. He complained, however, that hostile propaganda from other Arab countries against Jordan had not yet ceased.

Chinese Reds Angered by Sidewinders

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China today seized on the use of U.S. Sidewinder missiles by Nationalist Chinese jets to whip up a new hate-America frenzy. The Reds hinted they may use guided missiles in "blow for blow" retaliation.

The Peiping regime's official propaganda organs loosed a stream of articles describing the "fresh storm of anger" among Red China's 600 millions over the "outrageous crime"—the destruction of a Chinese plane by a Sidewinder.

The newspaper Ta Kung Pao was quoted as saying, "Only by dealing unrelenting and heavy counterblows at the aggressors and severely punishing those guilty of the provocation of firing the guided missiles can peace be safeguarded."

Ike Appeals Anew For Integration

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today called on all Americans to comply with the Supreme Court's school integration rulings lest there be "grave consequences" to the nation.

Eisenhower sounded the call—to both public officials and private citizens alike—at a news conference.

He was asked whether, in the light of the court's decisions, Arkansas and Virginia should reopen their closed schools on an integrated basis without being forced into it by the federal government.

Eisenhower had anticipated such questions. He pulled out a prepared statement and read it.

"The Supreme Court, in its opinion rendered Monday, once again has spoken with unanimity on the matter of equality of opportunity for education in the nation's public schools. It is encumbent upon all Americans, public officials and private citizens alike, to recognize their duty of complying with the rulings of the highest court in the land. Any other course, as I have said before, would be fraught with grave consequences to our nation," it said.

"Americans have always been proud that their institutions rest on the concept of equal justice under law. We must never forget that the rights of all of us depend upon respect for the lawfully determined rights of each of us. As one nation, we must assure to all our people, whatever their color creed, the enjoyment of their constitutional rights and the full measure of the law's protection.

"We must be faithful to our constitutional ideas and go forward in good faith with the unremitting task of translating them into reality."

After reading this statement, Eisenhower said that since the matter was still in litigation he would not have anything further to say on it at this time.

It was the President's first news conference in five weeks—his first since Aug. 27. These other matters were touched on:

FAR EAST—Eisenhower said that as an old soldier he believes it is not a good thing for the Chinese Nationalists to have concentrated so much of their military power on the offshore island of Quemoy. He added a comment that allies do have differences—family differences — and it becomes necessary to try to resolve different points of view.

As for the Far East crisis in general, the President said the basic issue is to avoid retreat in the face of force. He also said the United States wants to avoid use of force.

If we abandon those principles, Eisenhower added, we are going to suffer.

As for U.S. military power in the Western Pacific, the President said our weaponry and forces there are in good shape.

He said he is not too sure that demilitarization of Quemoy could solve the current crisis. But a cease-fire, he said, would provide new opportunity to negotiate.

ADAMS — Eisenhower said he did not ask anyone to obtain the resignation of Sherman Adams as his chief aide. There have been published reports that Eisenhower delegated to Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn the job of telling Adams he had to go.

The President said Adams resigned voluntarily—that he personally never asked Adams to quit.

POLITICS—Eisenhower said he has heard talk of Republican apathy, of sitting on hands and complacency in the congressional campaigns. To him, he said, such an attitude is incomprehensible.

He spoke of the philosophy of his administration—he called it a middle of the road and stay out of the gutter doctrine—and said the record of his almost six years in office provides a good foundation for GOP campaigning this year.

Eisenhower said he doesn't see how any Republican candidate could be anything less than enthusiastic about the party's chances.

Hitting out against voter apathy, Eisenhower said that if the Republicans failed to help with their time, brains and money, then their cause will be lost.

HEALTH — The President announced he will enter the Army's Walter Reed Hospital this weekend for his annual physical checkup. He said with a smile he was making the announcement in advance so that no one would think he was ill again.

SPUTNIK—With the first anniversary of Russia's initial launching of a Sputnik coming up on Saturday, Eisenhower paid new tribute to the Soviet scientists who made the launching possible.

But the President also noted that in the last year the United States has placed four satellites in orbit. He stressed that in the case of this country the motive was primarily scientific achievement as part of the International Geophysical Year.

Frost Possible Here Tonight

The Weatherman today issued a warning that the first frost of the year might descend upon Pickaway County tonight as the temperature is expected to drop to 30 degrees.

The lowest temperature since last winter came Sunday when the thermometer fell to 41 degrees and local residents began burning their home fires.

The local gas company has been flooded with calls to have the gas men check their furnaces. This service has been discontinued by the gas company. Independent furnace men must be called to check for possible gas and carbon monoxide leaks.

Due to changing early fall weather, when mornings and evenings are cool and the mid-days get quite warm, many persons have contacted their first fall colds.

The county is 1.79 inches above normal in rainfall for the year and 1.06 inches ahead of the monthly average for September. Last night the county experienced a drizzly cold rain of 0.14 inches.

Segregationists Try New Angle To Skirt Court

Arkansas Corporation Acknowledges Legal Ban in Fund Appeal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The Little Rock Private School Corp. appealed today for public contributions, in money and buildings, to operate the high schools as private, segregated institutions.

Dr. T. J. Raney, president of the corporation, announced the new plan at a news conference.

He said a "study and survey of buildings and facilities" already is under way. Raney said the new plan is contingent on the ruling, scheduled Monday, of the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

"If the court enjoins our use of the high school buildings, leased from the Little Rock School District, we will immediately begin school in other quarters," Raney said.

The cost of operating the four high schools, on the present basis, is $19,000 a week, Supt. of Schools Virgil Blossom said.

In Virginia, Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. said he hopes to move within the next few days to reopen nine schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville and Warren County.

A federal court order prevented the Little Rock Private School Corp. from opening the schools Tuesday, and a source close to Gov. Orval E. Faubus declared, "We are at the end of the line."

Faubus, who closed the schools Sept. 12 pending a vote on integration, said "a way will be found" and urged the people to stand firm in the fight to maintain segregation. A referendum Saturday revealed 72 per cent of the voters backing separate schools for Negroes and white pupils.

More than 70 high school teachers agreed unanimously to comply with the court order blocking the private school measure. Their lawyers had advised them that they are still under contract to the School Board and not to the private corporation.

The board leased the buildings to the corporation, but the Court of Appeals at Omaha directed it to retain control until a three-judge panel hears the case in St. Louis Monday.

Almond's statement about reopening the nine Virginia schools, all shut down by the governor after being ordered by federal judges to admit Negroes, came at a news conference.

At almost the same time, the governor got a request from the Norfolk City Council that he reopen six schools there and operate them on a segregated basis under the police power of the state.

The Council acted under Virginia's massive resistance laws, which require the governor to take the action if the city declares an emergency and makes the request.

Almond would not comment on the Norfolk action, and he refused to say what move he would make toward getting the schools open again.

Principal Boone Hall, who ordered the indefinite suspension at the 650-pupil school, said about 100 boys and girls yelled, threw rocks which broke "one or two windows" and caused a general disturbance outside the school this morning.

As far as he could tell, he said, no one was injured.

"We had the state police and the local policemen here," he said at mid-morning. "They've all left the grounds now."

Two Pickaway Youths Bound For National 4-H Congress

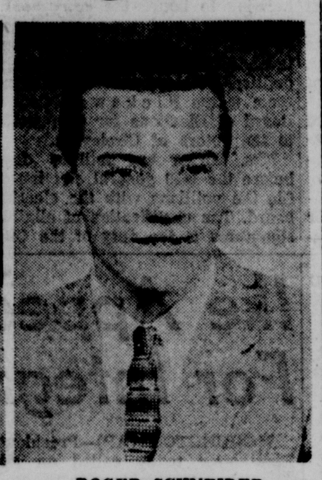

Nancy Wilson and Roger Schneider have been selected to attend National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago along with 28 other 4-H members from Ohio. Nancy was selected as the state winner in citizenship and Roger as the state winner in tractor maintenance.

Both were selected on their 4-H club record, their leadership, their participation in community activities and their record in the area in which they won the state award, according to Clarence J. Cunningham, County Extension Agent, 4-H.

Nancy and Roger will attend the National Club Congress November 30-December 5 as part of the Ohio delegation. At the Club Congress they will meet 4-H members from all the 49 states and Hawaii.

NANCY WILSON

ROGER SCHNEIDER

Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilson, has been a 4-H club member for eight years. During this time she has completed 16 projects including some in clothingn gardening, nutrition, child care, personality, electricity, freezing and Junior Leadership.

Nancy has held all offices in her local 4-H clubs during these eight years. In addition, she has been secretary and treasurer of the county Junior Leadership Club and secretary of the Pickaway County Junior Fair Board. Nancy has given demonstrations in her local clubs each year and this past year she received first in the county contest and participated in the State Fair contest. This past year Nancy has been a member of the Happy Diggers 4-H Club whose advisor is Mrs. George Meyers.

Miss Wilson has been a 4-H camp counselor from Pickaway Twp. for several years. She has participated in most 4-H club activities on the countywide basis. In past years, Nancy has been awarded trips to Ohio 4-H Junior Leadership Camp and to Ohio 4-H Club Congress.

* * *

NANCY IS A Senior at Pickaway Twp. High School where she maintains a high scholastic rating. She is a member of the National Honor Society and has received high scores on several district and state scholarship tests. Miss Wilson has been active in girls sports and has been a school cheerleader. She has assisted with school paper and was vice president of the high school science club.

Nancy is a past winner in the National Grange blouse construction contest. She has been an exhibitor in the open class State Fair flower shows.

Miss Wilson is active in music events at her school and in the county. She gave music lessons this past summer and hopes to major in music at college when she graduates.

Nancy indicates that one major importance of 4-H club work to her has been: "To me 4-H is an opportunity not only for developing but for practicing leadership. . ."

Roger Schneider, son of Mrs. Mary Schneider, has been a 4-H club member for eight years. During his years as a 4-H club member, he has completed 20 projects in dairy, tractor, electric, conservation and Junior Leadership.

Roger has been a seven-year member of the Walnut Wonder Workers 4-H Club, the advisors of which are Jay Hay and Harold Hines. The past year he served as a Junior Leader in the first year tractor club whose advisor is Frank Lands. During these years, Roger has held nearly all offices in his local club.

Schneider is currently the president of the county Junior Leadership Club. He has been an active Junior Fair Board member in past years. Roger has participated in many county activities during the past years. This past year he was county winner in the tractor operators contest and went on to place second in this contest at the Ohio State Fair.

Roger was on the county general livestock judging team in 1955 and the dairy team in 1957. The dairy team placed first at Dairy Day at Wooster. The title of King of the Pickaway County Junior Fair was awarded Roger in 1957.

Roger has been awarded trips to Ohio 4-H Club Congress and 4-H Conservation Camp in previous years. In 1957, Roger was the square dance caller for a dance set that won the county and district contests. His hobby of calling square dances has assisted the county 4-H camp program when he has served us counselor.

* * *

ROGER IS A freshman at Ohio State University this fall since his graduation from Walnut Twp. School. In school Roger was a member of the Honor Society and active in FFA activities. He received the State Farmer Degree this past spring at the end of his year as president of his local FFA.

Roger has been president of his church youth group, and he has participated in other church activities. He is also active in Grange work and attended a Farm Bureau Camp this past year.

Roger indicates that one of the major benefits of 4-H club work has been: "Through 4-H club work I have met many wonderful friends all over the county and also all over the state."

Miss Wilson's trip is sponsored by the Ohio American Legion. Schneider's trip is sponsored by the Standard Oil Company of Ohio.

Ohio Idle Pay List Still Drops

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The number of Ohioans drawing unemployment benefits continues its steady drop which began in early summer.

The total as of last Saturday—including both regular and special benefits—stood at 170,113, a drop of 5,500 from the previous week.

Regular benefits were paid to 103,983 jobless Ohioans. Special benefits went to 66,130. Special benefits were authorized by a special session of the Legislature in June They are payable for 13 weeks after an unemployed person exhausts his regular 26 weeks of benefits.

Exhausting regular benefits last week were 4,169 Ohioans.

Lawyer Crow Under New Fire

State Bar Group Asks Supreme Court Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A committee of the Ohio State Bar Assn. asked the Ohio Supreme Court today to prevent J. Harvey Crow of Urbana, a disbarred attorney, from continuing to practice law.

The Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee, composed of 38 attorneys, claimed that Crow "is being contemptuous" of the court through his continued activities.

Attorneys claimed those activities are in violation of state law, which carries no panalty for violation and rules of the court. They said conviction for contempt would make Crow liable to a fine and jail sentence.

Crow has been disabrred as an attorney twice. The first time was in 1935 by Stark County Common Pleas Court. That court reinstated him in 1950. Common Pleas Court of Champaign County disbarred him Aug. 16, 1956, and an appellate court affirmed the action May 24, 1957.

The committee claimed that although Crow has not been an attorney since the 1957 date, he has continued to practice law in at least eight counties. They were listed as Franklin, Fayette, Champaign, Madison, Logan, Allen, Hamilton and Montgomery.

The group said Crow's legal activities included appearance before the state liquor board, the taking of depositions in a case before Champaign County Common Pleas Court, pleadings in U.S. District Bankruptcy Court and generally holding himself out as an attorney.

The Ohio Supreme Court has matters involving attorneys.

Two Pickaway Youths Bound For National 4-H Congress

Nancy Wilson and Roger Schneider have been selected to attend National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago along with 28 other 4-H members from Ohio. Nancy was selected as the state winner in citizenship and Roger as the state winner in tractor maintenance.

Both were selected on their 4-H club record, their leadership, their participation in community activities and their record in the area in which they won the state award, according to Clarence J. Cunningham, County Extension Agent, 4-H.

Nancy and Roger will attend the National Club Congress November 30-December 5 as part of the Ohio delegation. At the Club Congress they will meet 4-H members from all the 49 states and Hawaii.

NANCY WILSON

ROGER SCHNEIDER

Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilson, has been a 4-H club member for eight years. During this time she has completed 16 projects including some in clothingn gardening, nutrition, child care, personality, electricity, freezing and Junior Leadership.

Nancy has held all offices in her local 4-H clubs during these eight years. In addition, she has been secretary and treasurer of the county Junior Leadership Club and secretary of the Pickaway County Junior Fair Board. Nancy has given demonstrations in her local clubs each year and this past year she received first in the county contest and participated in the State Fair contest. This past year Nancy has been a member of the Happy Diggers 4-H Club whose advisor is Mrs. George Meyers.

Miss Wilson has been a 4-H camp counselor from Pickaway Twp. for several years. She has participated in most 4-H club activities on the countywide basis. In past years, Nancy has been awarded trips to Ohio 4-H Junior Leadership Camp and to Ohio 4-H Club Congress.

* * *

NANCY IS A Senior at Pickaway Twp. High School where she maintains a high scholastic rating. She is a member of the National Honor Society and has received high scores on several district and state scholarship tests. Miss Wilson has been active in girls sports and has been a school cheerleader. She has assisted with school paper and was vice president of the high school science club.

Nancy is a past winner in the National Grange blouse construction contest. She has been an exhibitor in the open class State Fair flower shows.

Miss Wilson is active in music events at her school and in the county. She gave music lessons this past summer and hopes to major in music at college when she graduates.

Nancy indicates that one major importance of 4-H club work to her has been: "To me 4-H is an opportunity not only for developing but for practicing leadership. . ."

Roger Schneider, son of Mrs. Mary Schneider, has been a 4-H club member for eight years. During his years as a 4-H club member, he has completed 20 projects in dairy, tractor, electric, conservation and Junior Leadership.

Roger has been a seven-year member of the Walnut Wonder Workers 4-H Club, the advisors of which are Jay Hay and Harold Hines. The past year he served as a Junior Leader in the first year tractor club whose advisor is Frank Lands. During these years, Roger has held nearly all offices in his local club.

Schneider is currently the president of the county Junior Leadership Club. He has been an active Junior Fair Board member in past years. Roger has participated in many county activities during the past years. This past year he was county winner in the tractor operators contest and went on to place second in this contest at the Ohio State Fair.

Roger was on the county general livestock judging team in 1955 and the dairy team in 1957. The dairy team placed first at Dairy Day at Wooster. The title of King of the Pickaway County Junior Fair was awarded Roger in 1957.

Roger has been awarded trips to Ohio 4-H Club Congress and 4-H Conservation Camp in previous years. In 1957, Roger was the square dance caller for a dance set that won the county and district contests. His hobby of calling square dances has assisted the county 4-H camp program when he has served us counselor.

* * *

ROGER IS A freshman at Ohio State University this fall since his graduation from Walnut Twp. School. In school Roger was a member of the Honor Society and active in FFA activities. He received the State Farmer Degree this past spring at the end of his year as president of his local FFA.

Roger has been president of his church youth group, and he has participated in other church activities. He is also active in Grange work and attended a Farm Bureau Camp this past year.

Roger indicates that one of the major benefits of 4-H club work has been: "Through 4-H club work I have met many wonderful friends all over the county and also all over the state."

Miss Wilson's trip is sponsored by the Ohio American Legion. Schneider's trip is sponsored by the Standard Oil Company of Ohio.

Ohio Idle Pay List Still Drops

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The number of Ohioans drawing unemployment benefits continues its steady drop which began in early summer.

The total as of last Saturday—including both regular and special benefits—stood at 170,113, a drop of 5,500 from the previous week.

Regular benefits were paid to 103,983 jobless Ohioans. Special benefits went to 66,130. Special benefits were authorized by a special session of the Legislature in June. They are payable for 13 weeks after an unemployed person exhausts his regular 26 weeks of benefits.

Exhausting regular benefits last week were 4,169 Ohioans.

Lawyer Crow Under New Fire

State Bar Group Asks Supreme Court Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A committee of the Ohio State Bar Assn. asked the Ohio Supreme Court today to prevent J. Harvey Crow of Urbana, a disbarred attorney, from continuing to practice law.

The Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee, composed of 38 attorneys, claimed that Crow "is being contemptuous" of the court through his continued activities.

Attorneys claimed those activities are in violation of state law, which carries no panalty for violation and rules of the court. They said conviction for contempt would make Crow liable to a fine and jail sentence.

Crow has been disabrred as an attorney twice. The first time was in 1935 by Stark County Common Pleas Court. That court reinstated him in 1950. Common Pleas Court of Champaign County disbarred him Aug. 16, 1956, and an appellate court affirmed the action May 24, 1957.

The committee claimed that although Crow has not been an attorney since the 1957 date, he has continued to practice law in at least eight counties. They were listed as Franklin, Fayette, Champaign, Madison, Logan, Allen, Hamilton and Montgomery.

The group said Crow's legal activities included appearance before the state liquor board, the taking of depositions in a case before Champaign County Common Pleas Court, pleadings in U.S. District Bankruptcy Court and generally holding himself out as an attorney.

The Ohio Supreme Court has matters involving attorneys.

Steam Horse on Last Leg

Soon the snort of steam, the angry pound of the drive shaft and the wail of the whistle will be heard no more along the path of the Norfolk and Western Railway, last major stronghold of the steam locomotive.

Two hundred and-two of its herd of iron horses will be scrapped by 1960 when diesel locomotives will pull their loads. Another 60 will be stowed away for emergency use.

The iron horse has had its day, and a glorious day it has been. Belching first wood smoke, then coal smoke, it pushed a frontier ahead of it as it thundered westward.

In engineering principles the steam locomotive was almost perfect from the beginning. It was a kitchen stove with built-in tea kettle mounted on wheels that were driven by the steam of the kettle along a fixed track that offered minimum resistance and guided as well as supported it all.

There were refinements and improvements, like that by the inventor Seth Boyden (who shifted the end of the drive arm from an axle crank to the wheel itself, giving more leverage), but basically the iron horse underwent little change.

Yet it took a lot of men to keep it in fuel and repair, and when the price of their labor grew high, the drafting boards gave birth to machines that required less labor.

Our regular monthly report on medical developments concerns four drugs which give promise of making life much more pleasant for countless Americans.

Transcopal is aversatile drug. Reportedly, it dramatically halts the vicious cycle of muscle spasm and pain, relaxes tension-ridden persons and, when properly used, has virtually no harmful side effects.

Although it is not yet available to physicians, it has been used to treat painful muscle spasm and mental tension in more than 3,000 patients. It has been found to be about 90 per cent effective and "as safe as aspirin," according to investigators studying it.

It has been tested in treating cases of low back pain, sciatica, stiff neck, bursitis, rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis, post-operative spasm, painful menstruation, asthma, ulcers, alcoholism, shingles, excessive sweating and other ailments.

Another tranquilizer, Atarax, is reported helpful in treating persons suffering from chronic hives stemming from emotional conflicts.

Investigators say the drug neutralizes the actions of substances apparently responsible for skin eruptions. It does not, however, cause undue drowsiness or impair mental alertness.

Combination injections of this new tranquilizer and prantal, an anti-cholingeric agent, controlled severe flare-ups in chronic hives cases, the report states. The same combination with epinephrine, they say, can be used to relieve asthma attacks.

A newly developed antibiotic, kanamycin, is reportedly successful in treating certain cases of mental disorders caused by high levels of ammonia in the blood.

This condition, causing hallucinations and often coma, occurs when the liver fails to perform adequately one of its functions, the removal of ammonia from the bloodstream.

The antibiotic is used to treat such psychotic states because of its ability to reduce the germs in the intestine which produce ammonia.

Kanamycin, first isolated in Japan in 1955, has been in experimental use for more than six months.

A new broad-spectrum antibiotic formula, Cosa-Tetrastatin, has been developed for treating many common types of infections of the respirator, gastrointestinal, genitourinary, cutaneous, surgical and ocular origin. It is available by prescripion only.

Question and Answer

Q.: My physician recently prescribed an antibiotic for a virus infection. Could I take the same pill for an infection in an open wound?

A.: Since many of the antibiotics are potentially harmful, they should never be taken without specific orders from a physician.

Road Signs Can Be Confusing

By Hal Boyle

By HUGH MULLIGAN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—If I live to be 100, I doubt if I'll ever fully comprehend the highway signs erected in our so-called English-speaking country.

Who writes them, anyway? Gertrude Stein? Casey Stengel in the off season? Sam Goldwyn's old English teacher?

I've tried. Honest, officer, I've tried, but I just don't get the roadside message. The argot of the asphalt escapes me completely.

"Fallen rock zone," for instance. How does one recently comport one's self in a fallen rock zone?

Look up, then duck. Look down and cringe? "Drive slow" — it should be slowly but the roads' scholars decree otherwise — and give the fallen rock a sporting chance to conk me? Should I "resume speed" to avoid pulverization or hie to the nearest "roadside rest" until the rocks have had their fill of falling?

Nonsense. Let the rocks fall where they may, this sign has no place in a free society. Why should a fallen rock, which pays no taxes, much less gathers any moss, be given the right of way over a sober, properly licensed, law-abiding, sign-watching, meter-feeding, tax-paying motorist?

And "end speed zone," what does that mean? Do I start to stop speeding or start to speed to stop from stopping?

Man and hot rodder, I've been tooling along the nation's highways and byways, up "hill" and down "grade," through "thickly populated" (one barn, two sheds) and "densely populated" (one house, two barns, three chickens) areas for close to 15 years now and I have yet to encounter the stag at eve or at any other time at a "deer crossing" and wouldn't have the vaguest notion of what to do if I did.

Do the rules differ in season and out of season? What is the bag limit for a breech-loading 1953 Ford?

Come to think of it, I've never seen any eggs on the road in a "bird nesting area" or any cows at a "cattle crossing" or any backward moppets in a "slow children" sector, although several did seem a bit unstrung farther up the pike and a subsequent "slow school" sign informed me that their deficiencies were being remedied.

And please don't ask me to "beware low flying aircraft," because the old buggy doesn't have an ejection seat, or to "watch low trees," no matter how pretty in autumn, when I should be watching the road; or to "drive off bridge in event of enemy attack," as a sign on the George Washington bridge so boldly bids me. Fellows, it's a 136-foot drop into the Hudson. Let the enemy watch out for itself.

I'll "merge," I'll "yield," I'll even "squeeze," though it always makes me blush in mixed company, but I'll be darned if I'll "bump" just because a sign says so. The guy up front might be from out of state and not appreciate this legalized horseplay.

There are signs like "court quiet" and "alternate feed" which confuse and amuse me; signs like "road closed, proceed at own risk" which terrify and demoralize me, but of all sad signs that try my soul, the saddest are these: "One mile, pay toll."

More Education Abroad Needed

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Stressing that education can be a greater force in the world than armies, President John C. Baker of Ohio University here said today that more of it—U.S. style—must be given to underdeveloped countries.

"The economic, social and political stability of these countries will depend much more on this educational issue than on Communist philosophy, infiltration or ties," he told some 3,000 students at the president's convication opening the university school year.

Red Predicts Sputnik TV Transmission Coming

LONDON (AP) — A Russian radio commentator today predicted a worldwide television hookup by means of Sputnik transmitting stations.

The Sputniks would have to be motionless in relation to the earth but this could be achieved if they made one revolution of the globe every 24 hours.

Nikolai Potisayev said a satellite 21,000 miles out in space would view nearly a third of the earth's surface. Three such satellites at equal distances would cover the whole world.

Wall Street Not Influential

By George Sokolsky

Much depends upon the next election, for it is a forerunner of 1960 when a new President is to be elected. The Democrats believe that there is a trend toward them and that they will carry both New York State and California which in practical terms could eliminate both Richard Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller as Republican possibilities.

It is now generally taken for granted that Nixon will be nominated on the Republican side, but it is also assumed that if Nelson Rockefeller is elected governor of New York in 1958, he will seek the Republican Presidential nomination in 1960.

Republicans are anxious to elect William Knowland as governor of California because that will arrest the trend in that state toward the Democrats. The conservative Republicans are anxious to have Knowland elected because he represents constructive thinking in the United States. Also, if Knowland is elected governor of California, there can be no question as to Nixon's nomination by the 1960 Republican Convention.

The Republicans are also anxious that Sens. Barry Goldwater and George Malone should be re-elected to the United States Senate because they represent the kind of Republicanism which regards New York as a warren of confusion.

Enormous sums of money are being poured into Arizona and Nevada to defeat these Republicans. Much of that money comes from New York and some from Washington. It is labor money and liberal money, often contributed by bankers who have not yet discovered that they cannot control the United States through their enemies any more than through their friends.

Although occasionally they can effect a fix, the smart politician stays away from them because Wall Street is like a sieve where everybody knows what everybody else is doing. Anyhow, the combination of labor racket money and Wall Street money often hurts a good man. It did Sen. Pat McCarran.

The campaign in most parts is too costly and too dull. The reason is television. Party workers are not too excited about television because they like to be seen by a candidate, to shake his hand, to hope that he will remember each one.

Television is cold light in a smoke-filled club-room. The voter might listen to a politician on television but that depends somewhat on what else is on. Nevertheless, television is now the fashion and it is very expensive and politicians find it troublesome to raise all the money they need for it.

This not only affects the great men who are running for governorships or for the United States Senate, but also the local candidates who in the growing cities find it difficult to ring doorbells and kiss babies but who nevertheless hope they can reach the eyes and ears of their constituents.

As there are few issues to discuss, all candidates resort either to ad hominem arguments or to dodging the issue. For instance, the bankers and the big industrialists generally favor peace at any price because they fear that they will be eliminated in the next war by the ferocity of government controls. However, the course of events is so rapid and decisions have to be made so quickly that no one has the time or inclination to bother to ask their opinions.

Perhaps one reason that John Foster Dulles is not too popular among the Wall Street bankers and the cafe society repeaters of "well-informed sources," is that he, who for decades professionally advised these men, has no time or inclination to listen to their advice. The Wall Street mind no longer plays a great role in American politics.

In the peculiarity of the 1958 campaign, these are factors that

U.S. Employment Picture Brightens

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in two years, the number of the nation's major job areas reporting improved employment outnumber those showing increases in joblessness.

The Labor Department announced this in reporting that the job picture improved during the late summer in all but a few of the nation's chief labor and production centers.

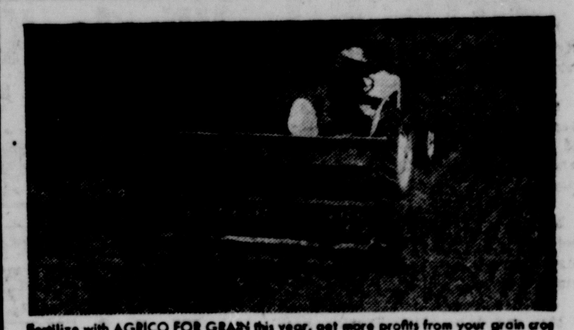

Surveys showed four-fifths of 149 major labor market areas reported a drop in unemployment. Most of the declines were relatively small.

The improved job situation was attributed to pickups in the durable goods industries such as steel and machinery manufacturing and to continued seasonal expansion in other industries.

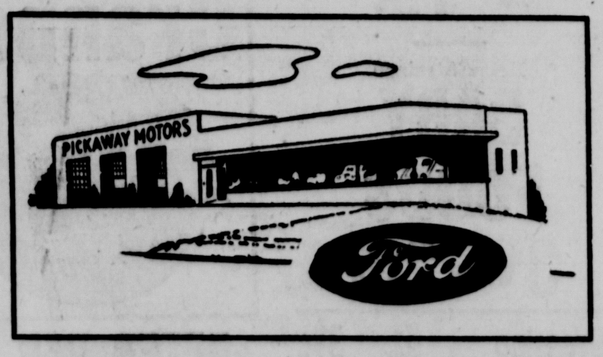

Poatoes usually need a warm or temperate climate in which to grow. But there is one species of potato in the mounfains of Mexico that grows well at the snow line.

Steam Horse on Last Leg

Soon the snort of steam, the angry pound of the drive shaft and the wail of the whistle will be heard no more along the path of the Norfolk and Western Railway, last major stronghold of the steam locomotive.

Two hundred and-two of its herd of iron horses will be scrapped by 1960 when diesel locomotives will pull their loads. Another 60 will be stowed away for emergency use.

The iron horse has had its day, and a glorious day it has been. Belching first wood smoke, then coal smoke, it pushed a frontier ahead of it as it thundered westward.

In engineering principles the steam locomotive was almost perfect from the beginning. It was a kitchen stove with built-in tea kettle mounted on wheels that were driven by the steam of the kettle along a fixed track that offered minimum resistance and guided as well as supported it all.

There were refinements and improvements, like that by the inventor Seth Boyden (who shifted the end of the drive arm from an axle crank to the wheel itself, giving more leverage), but basically the iron horse underwent little change.

Yet it took a lot of men to keep it in fuel and repair, and when the price of their labor grew high, the drafting boards gave birth to machines that required less labor.

The campaign in most parts is too costly and too dull. The reason is television. Party workers are not too excited about television because they like to be seen by a candidate, to shake his need to be considered. Issues have been eliminated. Of course, the South has segregation, but it also has a one-party system. It is difficult to distinguish between a so-called liberal and a so-called conservative in either party, except that when a candidate's liberalism conforms to a certain pattern, he is likely to be endorsed by the A.D.A. (Americans for Democratic Action), a Social Democratic group that infiltrates both major parties.

No great foreign issues have arisen among the parties, except that the Democrats say that the Republicans do everything all wrong and the Republicans still believe that the Democrats are responsible for Soviet Russia stealing the atom bomb.

So what is there to talk about? hand, to hope that he will remember each one.

Television is cold light in a smoke-filled club-room. The voter might listen to a politician on television but that depands somewhat on what else is on. Nevertheless, television is now the fashion and it is very expensive and politicians find it troublesome to raise all the money they need for it.

CHS Principal Chides Students On Behavior

In a high school assembly last week J. Wray Henry, principal, admonished pupils to watch their behavior on the streets.

Complaints have been registered in both the superintendent's and principal's offices regarding the noon time activities of the high school group.

Pupils having cars have been driving too fast through the alleys and not stopping at crossings. They have been known to pass stopped school buses within the city limits. Perhaps one of the most aggravating misdemeanors is the tossing of candy and gum wrappers on the street, he said. Henry reminded the pupils of the ordinances regarding traffic regulations and litter on city streets.

He also reminded the student body of some of the actions of a few pupils which by all standards are not in good taste.

School administrators and teachers have no legal control over pupils when they are not on school property, he said, however, Henry hopes that "a word to the wise will be sufficient".

If the tears flow every time you grate an onion, just put a piece of bread in your mouth. It will reduce your discomfort immeasurably.

CHS Principal Chides Students On Behavior

In a high school assembly last week J. Wray Henry, principal, admonished pupils to watch their behavior on the streets.

Complaints have been registered in both the superintendent's and principal's offices regarding the noon time activities of the high school group.

Pupils having cars have been driving too fast through the alleys and not stopping at crossings. They have been known to pass stopped school buses within the city limits. Perhaps one of the most aggravating misdemeanors is the tossing of candy and gum wrappers on the street, he said. Henry reminded the pupils of the ordinances regarding traffic regulations and litter on city streets.

He also reminded the student body of some of the actions of a few pupils which by all standards are not in good taste.

School administrators and teachers have no legal control over pupils when they are not on school property, he said, however, Henry hopes that "a word to the wise will be sufficient".

If the tears flow every time you grate an onion, just put a piece of bread in your mouth. It will reduce your discomfort immeasurably.

William Kelly Speaker For Women's Club Rally

The Pickaway County Women's Republican Club held a Rally, campaign opener and family night with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p. m. Monday in the Williamsport Parish Hall. Over 110 attended.

William Cody Kelly, Vice Mayor of Cincinnati, veteran of World War II, American Legion Post No. 744, with a distinguished service award was the guest speaker of the evening at the Pavilion. A girls trio, composed of Miss Sue Rihl, Miss Linda Sharp and Miss Cinda Anderson sang a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Drummond. The local school music teacher, Miss Martha Turner, directed group singing.

Twenty-two candidates or their representatives and Committeemen were present. Mrs. Donna Wagner, candidate for member of State Central Committee-woman; Robert Wood representing C. William O'Neill for Governor; D. E. McDonald representing William Saxbe for Attorney General; William J. Green for the office of Representative to the General Assembly; William Ammer for the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas;

Clarence M. Maxson, for County Commissioner were all given recognition by the president, Mrs. H. O. Caldwell and were permitted a few minutes time each in which to state their views and to make comments. Also, Mrs. Elmer Barrett and Mrs. William D. Radcliff spoke in behalf of their husbands for the office of Representative to Congress and for Judge of the Court of Appeals, respectively. David E. Morgan running for re-election as State Senator gave humorous remarks, as did Senator Robert Shaw.

Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown sent word about making arrangements for the Coffee Cup Operation in the near future.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Joe West, Mrs. James Greenwood, Mrs. Bertha Porter, Mrs. Charles Smiley. In charge of arrangements were: Mrs. Russell Howard, Mrs. Carl Hurst, Mrs. Fred Tipton and Mrs. W. D. Radcliff.

Junior Women Plan Guest Night

Guest night will be observed when the Junior Women's Club meet at 8 p. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Earl Weaver Jr.,

Household Hints

Looking over the cook's shoulder: pancakes were made from mixes at the end of the last century when a ready-prepared combination of wheat and corn flour first appeared on the market in a one-pound package.

Next time you make up a batch of garlic-flavored butter, add a little minced fresh or dried crushed basil to it. Besides using the butter for garlic bread, you'll find it good to spread over halved tomatoes before they are baked or broiled.

Fish steaks are great to cook over an indoor grill; place a bay leaf on each and baste with melted butter.

Mix very thin cooked spaghetti with a lavish amount of grated Parmesan cheese over extremely low heat, using two forks. Honest flavor!

William Kelly Speaker For Women's Club Rally

The Pickaway County Women's Republican Club held a Rally, campaign opener and family night with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p. m. Monday in the Williamsport Parish Hall. Over 110 attended.

William Cody Kelly, Vice Mayor of Cincinnati, veteran of World War II, American Legion Post No. 744, with a distinguished service award was the guest speaker of the evening at the Pavilion. A girls trio, composed of Miss Sue Rihl, Miss Linda Sharp and Miss Cinda Anderson sang a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Drummond. The local school music teacher, Miss Martha Turner, directed group singing.

Twenty-two candidates or their representatives and Committeemen were present. Mrs. Donna Wagner, candidate for member of State Central Committee-woman; Robert Wood representing C. William O'Neill for Governor; D. E. McDonald representing William Saxbe for Attorney General; William J. Green for the office of Representative to the General Assembly; William Ammer for the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas;

Clarence M. Maxson, for County Commissioner were all given recognition by the president, Mrs. H. O. Caldwell and were permitted a few minutes time each in which to state their views and to make comments. Also, Mrs. Elmer Barrett and Mrs. William D. Radcliff spoke in behalf of their husbands for the office of Representative to Congress and for Judge of the Court of Appeals, respectively. David E. Morgan running for re-election as State Senator gave humorous remarks, as did Senator Robert Shaw.

Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown sent word about making arrangements for the Coffee Cup Operation in the near future.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Joe West, Mrs. James Greenwood, Mrs. Bertha Porter, Mrs. Charles Smiley. In charge of arrangements were: Mrs. Russell Howard, Mrs. Carl Hurst, Mrs. Fred Tipton and Mrs. W. D. Radcliff.

Junior Women Plan Guest Night

Guest night will be observed when the Junior Women's Club meet at 8 p. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Earl Weaver Jr.,

Household Hints

Looking over the cook's shoulder: pancakes were made from mixes at the end of the last century when a ready-prepared combination of wheat and corn flour first appeared on the market in a one-pound package.

Next time you make up a batch of garlic-flavored butter, add a little minced fresh or dried crushed basil to it. Besides using the butter for garlic bread, you'll find it good to spread over halved tomatoes before they are baked or broiled.

Fish steaks are great to cook over an indoor grill; place a bay leaf on each and baste with melted butter.

Mix very thin cooked spaghetti with a lavish amount of grated Parmesan cheese over extremely low heat, using two forks. Honest flavor!

Tony Randall's Dark Cloud Has Larger Silver Lining

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Into each life some rain must fall" goes the old pop song. Tony Randall had his own personal storm last year, but it turned out to have a silver lining.

Tony, who first reached fame as Mister Peepers' pal on TV, is one of the funniest young actors, but he can do more than comedy. He proved that when he did the H. L. Mencken role in "Inherit the Wind," about the Scopes trial.

he was brought to Hollywood by 20th Century-Fox and made a hit in the hilarious "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter." Then he was cast in a serious role with Marlon Brando and Montgomery Clift in "The Young Lions."

He was fitted for his costumes and vaccinated for the location trip to Germany. Four days before he was scheduled to leave, he was told he would not do the picture.

The explanation he was given: the representative of a powerful agency went to the studio boss and said Dean Martin must be cast in the Randall role. If not, Brando and Clift would be pulled out of "The Young Lionsl"

Tony said the studio chief told him, "I'm sorry, but what could I do? The picture had to start in four days."

Tony was nursing his wounds over losing the plum role when he got an offer to appear on Broadway in "Oh Captain." Fox gave him a leave, and he starred in the meaty part created by Alec Guinness in the film "The Captain's Paradise." For the first time, Tony got to sing and dance and was a personal hit in a hit-and-miss show.

The result: He's in even greater demand for films. His return to Hollywood casts him opposite Debbie Reynolds in "The Mating Game."

"I play a tax collector," he said drily. "We consider it a comedy role."

New Shiploader Used in Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A new seven-million - dollar mechanical shiploader is in fulltime operation at the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway's coal-loading dock here.

The railroad said the new facilities, a ywar in construction and under tests since Aug. 12, will boost the coal-loading capacity at the Presque Isle dock 40 per cent. Last year the dock, which then had three unloaders, dumped an all-time record 18,700,000 tons from railroad cars into lake carriers.

The new loader can handle two cars at the same time and dump 6,000 tons of coal an hour.

Use of Iron Ore Dropping Sharply

CLEVELAND (AP)—The American Iron Ore Assn. reported today iron ore consumption in the United States and Canada in August was down 31 per cent from August, 1957.

Consumption of iron ore totaled 7,748,987 gross tons during August, compared with 11,422,725 tons for the corresponding month a year ago.

For the first eight months of this year consumption totaled 57,302,580 gross tons, compared with 91,097,288 tons in the first eight months of 1957.

Buckeye Football Fans Get Tips on Parking Problems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University, which started a pay parking system for football fans last Saturday, has some suggestions for preventing traffic jams like the one which developed the first day.

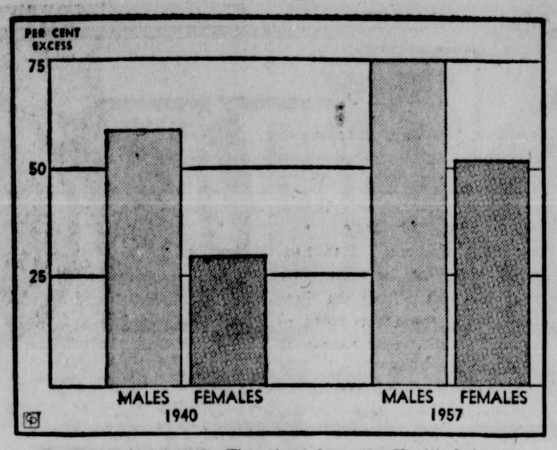

The following advice was directed primarily to out-of-town fans:

1. Leave home every bit as early as you have in past years. The fact you have a season parking ticket doesn't increase the traffic capacity of the streets leading to the parking lots.

2. Follow instructions on the back of your parking tickets, including the preferred routes. The few who ignored these instructions last Saturday caused much of the traffic jams.

3. If you don't have a parking ticket yet, go to the King avenue lot. There is plenty of space still available there.

4. If you have a parking ticket, display it in your windshield. Then police will not be forced to stop you.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: For two years I've been a member of a hospital therapy group. I am afraid of interpersonal relationships, especially with men.

My therapist is a doll - nice looking, sweet, intelligent. I like him very much and sometimes feel physically attracted to him. At times I feel he is attracted to me too, but I, in my "block," do nothing to cultivate his interest. I feel shy, inferior, inadequate, unlovable, childish.

He says I am attractive, intelligent, have a nice figure, a keen sense of humor and people would love me if I would let them. But I am emotionally attached to my mother and retain her false ideas of life and love, though intellectually I know they are wrong and reject them. I have good ideas, but always act on childish fears, he says.

About the therapist: I would like to know him, and have him know me even better than he does but I hold back; I fear rejection ultimately. What can I do about this? I don't want to leave the group because then I'd never see him again. Whenever I decide to quit and try to manage my life on my own I can't go through with it, because I like to see him, talk to him and be near him.

K.V.

DEAR D.V.: Instead of sticking to theme by telling you what to do about the therapist—which would be missing the mark, in the matter of helping you—I want to say, rather, that your love-interest in him is a healthy sign.

The small child, smitten with teacher (for good cause) does, in a sense experience in fantasy the seniments of courtship and belonging—but still, it is all on a fantasy level of self-giving. Actually, what he visualizes as possible is inappropriate to the real-life character of his affiliation with teacher. Even so, a true bond of mutual appreciation may exist between them—and may be life-lasting.

That is about as much as I can concede you, in respect to your therapist. But don't let it daunt you in the least. Go ahead and experiment at being yourself with him. If he's any good as a therapist, and he seems to be, he will rejoice at this symptom of growth, and will know how to encourage and direct your emerging confidence in your own lovability.

M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

NEW FILM STAR—Actress Haya Harareet of Israel, a virtual unknown in the movie world, is playing the feminine lead in the new film version of "Ben Hur." The motion picture is being made in Rome, Italy.

HIS OWN GUIDE DOG—"Flash," a blind greyhound, now has a "seeing-eye" dog of his own in Southampton, England. The friend in need is "Peggy," shown leading him down the street. Owner of the dogs is Mrs. George Cobin, who trained "Peggy."

Active Moderns save steps and space with their new Built-In GAS Range

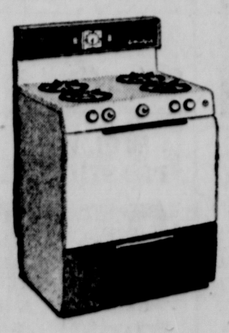

Like everything compact and well organized? Then you'll love a new Built-In GAS Range. Both the surface burners and GAS Oven go where you want them. You'll save steps and space with the beautiful, modern GAS kitchen of your dreams.

THERE'S A NEW CLEANLINESS IN GAS COOKING

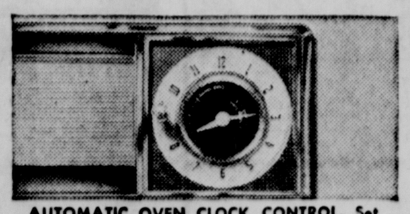

Each of the new, improved top burners on the 1958 Matchless GAS Ranges gives you complete control over cooking heats. And with the Burner-with-a-Brain there are no more boilovers, no spattering, no smoke to dirty walls and curtains. The perfectly adjusted GAS flame keeps pot and pan bottoms sparkling clean.

AMAZING AUTOMATIC GAS BURNER-WITH-A-BRAIN. You dial the cooking temperature you need. The clean, blue flame automatically raises and lowers itself to hold that temperature.

See the new RCA WHIRLPOOL Burner-with-a-Brain GAS Range at your Gas Appliance Dealers!

AUTOMATIC OVEN CLOCK CONTROL. Set it to turn the GAS Oven on at any time you wish. It cooks your dinner to perfection, then turns oven off.

Ohio Labor Contract Control Issue Is Hottest Proposal on State Ballot

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—By all odds the most crackling issue in next month's balloting is the constitutional proposal to regulate labor contracts in Ohio.

By election day it could overshadow even the race for governor.

Its backers call it the "right-to-work" proposal. Its opponents call the "right-to-work" phrase misleading—a sanctimonious fraud.

It will be Issue No. 2 on the statewide ballot.

If you vote "yes" for the proposal, you will be helping to write into the Ohio Constitution a ban on compulsory union shops. Many labor contracts now provide for union shops. You will be on the side taken personally by Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill.

If you vote "no" against the proposal, you will join those who contend its backers have no real interest in the right to work—that they, instead, hope in the long run to wreck labor unions. You will be on the side taken personally by the Democratic nominee for governor, Michael V. DiSalle, and the Democratic party in its state platform.

Obviously, personalities already are tangled up with the issue.

Candidates for both state and local offices have tried carefully to weigh its probable effect on the election. They admit that it is now "X—the unknown quantity."

Already apparent is a tendency to exaggerate both the good and bad points of the proposal.

Let's call it: Ohio's Great Debate of '58.

Since it's a debate, let's approach it like debaters do: First the question, then a definition, then the affirmative, then the negative, then rebuttal.

THE ISSUE (the exact wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on Nov. 4 ballots):

Article I

"Sec. 1A. No employer or labor organization shall deny or abridge the right to work by requiring membership or non-membership in, or payment or non-payment of money to, a labor organization as a condition of employment or continued employment in this state. All agreements in conflict with this section, are, to the extent of such conflict, unlawful and of no effect in this state."

DEFINITION: A union shop is one in which a labor-management contract agrees that new employes must, within a specified period—usually 30 days—join the union holding bargaining rights in the shop and maintain that membership. Maintenance of membership, of course, includes payment of dues.

A union shop differs from a closed shop. In a closed shop, a new employe must already be a union member before he is hired. The federal Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act prohibits closed shops.

OFFICIAL ARGUMENT IN FAVOR:

"This is a proposal to include in the Bill of Rights of the Ohio Constitution a guaranty of freedom of choice—a protection against paying tribute to a private organization to hold a job. It was petitioned by nearly half a million Ohioans from all walks of life.

"A vote 'yes' on the right to work amendment (Question 2) will:

"Give every man and woman in Ohio freedom to join or not to join a labor union.

"Give every man and woman in Ohio freedom to pay or not to pay money to a labor union.

"Prohibit compulsory 'union shop' agreements between employers and labor officials under which an employe must pay union dues or be fired.

"Make unions voluntary organizations controlled by members free to act, investigate or resign, as are religious, farm, political or other organizations.

"Require union organizers to secure members on the basis of services performed rather than compulsion.

"Help correct such abuses of power by some professional union officials as have become a matter of public knowledge.

"Return to union members effective control of the way their dues and assessments are spent.

"Stop forced contributions used for furthering ambitious programs of political domination.

"Help build public and member confidence in the labor movement.

"A 'yes' vote will:

"Not interfere with the legal rights of employes to organize and bargain collectively.

"Not affect hours, seniority or pensions.

"Not affect wages or bargaining for higher wages.

"Not permit an employer to fire anyone because of union membership or non-membership.

"Not interfere with union membership campaigns.

"Eighteen states have approved right-to-work laws. In these states employment is up. Payrolls are up. Union membership is up. Protect your rights as a free American.

"Vote 'yes' on Question 2."

That's the official argument in favor, and it's being mailed to all Ohioans by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

OFFICIAL ARGUMENT IN OPPOSITION:

"Majority rule is the American way where you work and where you live. The vast majority of Ohio working people want union shops. They voted 88.3 per cent in favor of them in 3,292 government-conducted secret-ballot elections. This amendment would deny working folks their right to majority rule.

"Churchmen of all faiths oppose Issue 2 on moral grounds, including the Protestant Ohio Council of Churches' General Assembly, all six Catholic bishops, the Synagogue Council of America. Among their reasons:

"1. Everyone benefits from his local union so everyone has a moral obligation to carry his share of the load.

"2. The 'right-to-work' title is a fraud providing no work and destroying many traditional American rights.

"Public leaders say it means too much governmental control. Eisenhower's Secretary of Labor James Mitchell, ex-President Truman, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt agree labor and management should be left free to bargain without government interference. The late Sen. (Robert A.) Taft said, 'I think it would be a mistake to go to the extreme of absolutely outlawing a contract which provides for a union shop.' (Congressional Record, 1947.)

"It would upset Ohio's economic applecart. The traditional union shop agreements in Ohio have helped make Ohioans among the best-fed and best-clothed of any state's residents. Eighty per cent of all Ohio employer-employee contracts include the union shop. Destroying this base for industrial peace can only bring trouble, halt Ohio's economic growth.

"Certain selfish business groups are trying to fool you. These same groups fought against social security, unemployment compensation, minimum wage and child labor laws and civil rights legislation. This group is just as wrong on Issue 2 as it was in opposing helping the aged, injured and unemployed.

"Everything to lose: Nothing to gain. Issue 2 can't help you, can hurt you.

"Vote 'no' on Issue 2!"

That's the official argument in opposition, and it also is being mailed to all Ohioans by Secretary of State Brown.

Now for rebuttal.

OPPONENTS (the statement comes from Elmer Cope, secretary-treasurer, Ohio AFL-CIO):

"The backers of this proposal are not interested in human rights. They are interested through this amendment in weakening unions and ultimately in wiping them out. The dominant forces behind this measure want to break our unions so they will be able to pay low wages and eliminate many of the contract provisions that will protect workers on the jobs.

"The real leaders promoting this anti-union proposal want the right to hire anti-union people so they can ultimately force the union out of their plants and thus be able to be free from dealing with an organization of their employes.

"When this happens wages will start a long slide downward. Theirs is a short-sighted goal, we all know. A working man with money to spend forms the backbone of our prosperity.

"But these shortsighted businessmen hate to pay union wages because they believe their profits are reduced in the process, forgetting that low wages mean less purchasing power, less production and therefore lower profits.

"But it is the old story—these people dislike unions so strongly that they lose sight of their own interests."

PROPONENTS' REPLY: "Remember the last sentence of our official argument: 18 states have approved right-to-work laws. In these states employment is up. Payrolls are up. Union membership is up."

QUESTION: What effect, if any, would adoption of the amendment have upon control of alleged corruption among some labor leaders?

"Ohio is the first state in the nation where the backers of the so-called right-to-work amendment have attempted to link it with corruption. This is sheer opportunism.

OPPONENTS (another statement from Cope issued after Gov. O'Neill announced his support of the proposal):

swallowed the big lie that these

"Apparently Gov. O'Neill has two issues are connected. In doing so he has taken a belated four-square stand against sin. We, too are against sin and, unlike the governor, have done something about it by expelling offending unions from the AFL-CIO and by adopting and enforcing the AFL-CIO ethical practices code.

"Sober-minded people in both political parties recognize that this amendment is not an anti-corruption measure. It is not a cure-all except that its real aim is to kill the patient."

PROPONENTS' REPLY (This from Right to Work Committee Chairman Elton Kile):

"It's about time we took off the gloves and answered a few of these irresponsible statements. The corruption among certain labor leaders has been brought out in right to work programs in nearly every state where the issue has come up. Right to work is not meant to be a cure-all, but certainly if rank-and-file members can run their unions the way they want to and without fear of labor bosses, there will be a lot less corruption.

"Compulsion among union members is what leads to corruption.

"It comes about when members, unable to take action against their leadership because of the fear of reprisal which could mean the loss of employment, are unable to control the spending of union dues.

"Labor leaders have these union funds completely under their control, can use them for personal gain, for the support of political candidates without permission of members, and in many ways.

"The sum and substance of the whole question is in the silence that is imposed upon the rank-and-file by their fear they will be drummed out of their unions from criticism of union leaders."

Ohio Finance Director Answers DiSalle Query

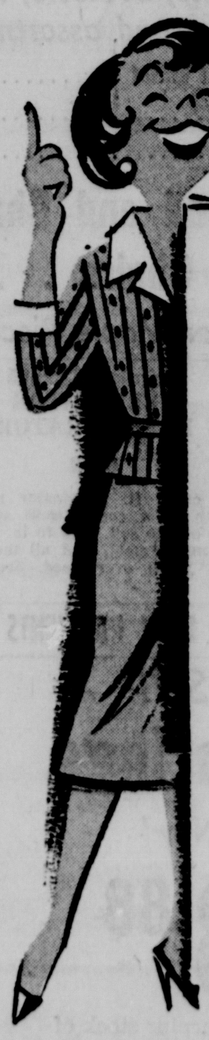

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Finance Director John A. Skipton has replied to questions about Ohio's finances posed by Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic nominee for governor.

But the aide to Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill turned down DiSalle's request for an interview next Thursday. Skipton asserted state finances are too complicated to become the subject of a "political tete-a-tete."

The World Today

By James Marlow

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst

Under Gamal Nasser's leadership, nationalist - minded Arab leaders are aiming a body blow at foreign oil producers in the Middle East.

The Arab leaders intend a serious challenge to U.S. policy. A hint of things to come is found in a little-noticed development in Nasser's capital.

The Arab League is inviting all its member states to send delegations to what is being billed as the "first Arab oil conference," scheduled for Nov. 1 in Cairo.

This is on Nasser's initiative. He is pushing hard for the idea of greater producer-state participation in the oil industry, all the way from extraction to marketing. He wants a cut of the oil riches.

Among the projects to come before this meeting will be a plan for an all-Arab pipeline parallel to the present Western-controlled lines, and a proposal — from the revolutionary Iraqi regime—for an all-Arab tanker fleet.

These may be pipedreams at the moment, but they show the way the wind blows. The U.S. State Department cannot overlook the fact that if Western-hating Premier Mossadegh, back in 1953, had had access to transport —even a handful of tankers—he could have marketed Iranian oil and triumphed in a dangerous anti-Western crisis in Iran.

One of the most important figures in the Cairo meeting will be 39-year-old Sheik Abdullah Tariki, director of Saudi Arabia's Department of Petroleum Affairs. He is an ardent nationalist with a grudge against the United States.

Tariki hopes to persuade little British-protected Kuwait, most fabulous producer in the world, to join in these all-Arab schemes to weaken the Western position.

This is a matter of gravest importance for American policy. There is a temporary glut of oil in today's world market, but this cannot and will not last. Demand will soar in years to come.

At the same time, American search for oil becomes more difficult and far more expensive all the time.

After World War I Washington had a fright over the future of American reserves. The State Department backed American commercial initiative to the hilt in the search for new sources. When the fabulous fields of the Saudi peninsula proved to be the world's great oil bank, U.S. policy moved to make certain these reserves did not fall under potentially hostile control.

This fact alone played a large part in the successful effort to bring shattered Western Europe back to economic health after World War II. If control of the oil now should pass gradually out of friendly hands, Europe once again would be endangered.

American oil men abroad need the same kind of resolute support now. They also need to look toward building a defensive position in the face of Nasser's burgeoning offensive.

Nasser's men shrewdly invited non-Arab Iran and Venezuela to the November oil conference. Iran apparently will resist the overtures, but Venezuela, smarting over its current irritation with Washington's protective oil import quotas, has accepted.

Iran, Venezuela and other non-Arab producers would be important links in a defensive chain against prospective Arab oil blackmail. The other links would be forged from a highly flexible transport situation and greater storage facilities in Western Europe.

The Arabs cannot drink their oil. They cannot afford any long interruptions in its flow, unless they want to risk new revolutions.

If the Western position continues weak, the Arabs are likely to talk blackmail. If it is strong, they are more likely to talk sense.

Ike Says He's Neutral on Right-to-Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —William F. Knowland has made public a "Dear Bill" letter in which President Eisenhower declared he never has expressed himself "one way or another" on the right-to-work issue.

Knowland is Republican candidate for governor and backing a ballot measure to enact a California right-work law. He said opponents of the initiative have put up billboards representing the President as being against such legislation.

"I have never expressed myself one way or another on whether any state should exercise this jurisdiction, feeling, as I do, that this should be determined by the citizens of each state," the President wrote.

"Any statement indicating or implying that I have done so is a misrepresentation of the facts," Eisenhower declared in the letter.

The President noted he had been asked to recommend repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act's clause permitting union shop contracts, except in states with right-to-work laws, so that states no longer would have jurisdiction to enact such laws.

He said he also had been urged to recommend enactment of a national right-to - work law which would "have the effect of denying to the states freedom of action in this field."

"I have rejected all of these suggested recommendations, for I am opposed to depriving the states of jurisdiction in this matter," President Eisenhower said.

Youngstown Print Shop Owner Jailed

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The head of a Youngstown printing firm, William Glaros, was sentenced to one to 10 years in Ohio Penitentiary Tuesday for using his company's presses in a $200,000 insurance fraud.

The fraud was engineered by John J. Robin and Paul E. Shade, both of whom are serving terms in Ohio Penitentiary.

Mahoning County Common Pleas Judge John W. Ford denied probation to the 45-year-old Glaros, father of six, but stayed the jail term pending appeal.

Competition

NEW YORK (AP)— The steel industry lays claim to a thriving competition.

To prove it, Steelways magazine lists the following figures: 33 steel companies making structural shapes; 64 turning out hot rolled bars; 44 producing cold finished bars; 59 making wire and wire products; 24 making cold rolled sheets; 63 making stainless steel.

Ohio Democrat Rallies To Hear Truman

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ohio Democrats will welcome one of their hardiest campaigners Thursday night when Harry S. Truman flies into Cleveland-Hopkins Airport.

His tour, which will include Akron and Columbus, will start early Friday morning with a Truman ritual—a brisk walk.

For newsmen agile enough to keep pace with the quick-stepping, 73-year--old Truman, the stroll will serve as a news conference.

Later, he will address the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers at Public Hall. The afternoon will include an informal dinner with Democratic candidates and friends.

Friday night, a motor cavalcade will accompany the former chief executive to Akron where he will make an address.

He will fly from Cleveland to Columbus Saturday for a fund raising dinner on behalf of Ohio Democratic congressional candidates. Sharing the speaker's stand will be house speaker Sam Rayburn.

Lie Test Booked In Woman's Death

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—George Vannatter, 30 - year - old factory hand, goes to London Prison Farm today for a lie detector test in the death of his wife in their Pleasant Plain home.

Sheriff Clyde Dericks said the test was scheduled after study of evidence, including the statement of Vannatter's son, Marvin, 5, that "Daddy hit mommy and shot her."

Vannatter maintained that the gun went off accidentally last Monday when he tried to wrest it from the boy's hands. He said he loaded it for squirrel hunting.

Mrs. Barbara Vannatter, 29, was shot in the abdomen.

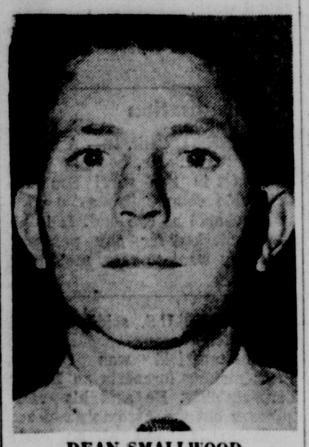

The first friction match was patented in Britain in 1826.

BFG Names Smallwood to Mansfield Post

Dean Smallwood, son of Mrs. Blanche Smallwood, 215 W. Mill St., has been named manager of the B. F. Goodrich Co. store in Mansfield.

Smallwood, 27, a graduate of Circleville High School in 1949, recently completed a B. F. Goodrich Retail Management Training School which lasted 10 months. The course included visits to various Goodrich stores in Ohio and was highlighted by a 3-weeks Management Clinic conducted at the company's general offices in Akron.

While at CHS, Smallwood was a varsity member of the football team for three years, playing right end. He also earned letters in basketball and baseball.

Following graduation, the new manager attended Ohio University, Athens. In 1951 he joined the U. S. Navy for a four year tour of duty.

SMALLWOOD participated in various service athletics, pitching his Philadelphia Naval Base team to the 4th Naval District softball championship in 1953.

He attends the Lutheran Church and is a member of the local BPO Elks.

Smallwood's Mansfield store, similar to the one in Circleville, was built about five years ago. B. F. Goodrich has been located in Mansfield since 1929.

Prior to being named manager, Smallwood headquartered in Newark for 1½ years, working with the store there while not traveling.

A brother, J. P. Smallwood, Bay Village, also is associated with B. F. Goodrich. He is territory manager for the Cleveland Zone office.

TRAVELING SECRETARY — Marguerite Girard, 22-year-old French secretary, works at her desk in Paris before leaving for Zagreb to start a globe-circling tour with Capt. Peter Townsend, British flying officer. Miss Girard's mother is French and her father is American.

The World Today

By James Marlow

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst

Under Gamal Nasser's leadership, nationalist - minded Arab leaders are aiming a body blow at foreign oil producers in the Middle East.

The Arab leaders intend a serious challenge to U.S. policy. A hint of things to come is found in a little-noticed development in Nasser's capital.

The Arab League is inviting all its member states to send delegations to what is being billed as the "first Arab oil conference," scheduled for Nov. 1 in Cairo.

This is on Nasser's initiative. He is pushing hard for the idea of greater producer-state participation in the oil industry, all the way from extraction to marketing. He wants a cut of the oil riches.

Among the projects to come before this meeting will be a plan for an all-Arab pipeline parallel to the present Western-controlled lines, and a proposal — from the revolutionary Iraqi regime—for an all-Arab tanker fleet.

These may be pipedreams at the moment, but they show the way the wind blows. The U.S. State Department cannot overlook the fact that if Western-hating Premier Mossadegh, back in 1953, had had access to transport —even a handful of tankers—he could have marketed Iranian oil and triumphed in a dangerous anti-Western crisis in Iran.

One of the most important figures in the Cairo meeting will be 39-year-old Sheik Abdullah Tariki, director of Saudi Arabia's Department of Petroleum Affairs. He is an ardent nationalist with a grudge against the United States.

Tariki hopes to persuade little British-protected Kuwait, most fabulous producer in the world, to join in these all-Arab schemes to weaken the Western position.

This is a matter of gravest importance for American policy. There is a temporary glut of oil in today's world market, but this cannot and will not last. Demand will soar in years to come.

At the same time, American search for oil becomes more difficult and far more expensive all the time.

After World War I Washington had a fright over the future of American reserves. The State Department backed American commercial initiative to the hilt in the search for new sources. When the fabulous fields of the Saudi peninsula proved to be the world's great oil bank, U.S. policy moved to make certain these reserves did not fall under potentially hostile control.

This fact alone played a large part in the successful effort to bring shattered Western Europe back to economic health after World War II. If control of the oil now should pass gradually out of friendly hands, Europe once again would be endangered.

American oil men abroad need the same kind of resolute support now. They also need to look toward building a defensive position in the face of Nasser's burgeoning offensive.

Nasser's men shrewdly invited non-Arab Iran and Venezuela to the November oil conference. Iran apparently will resist the overtures, but Venezuela, smarting over its current irritation with Washington's protective oil import quotas, has accepted.

Iran, Venezuela and other non-Arab producers would be important links in a defensive chain against prospective Arab oil blackmail. The other links would be forged from a highly flexible transport situation and greater storage facilities in Western Europe.

The Arabs cannot drink their oil. They cannot afford any long interruptions in its flow, unless they want to risk new revolutions.

If the Western position continues weak, the Arabs are likely to talk blackmail. If it is strong, they are more likely to talk sense.

Ike Says He's Neutral on Right-to-Work

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —William F. Knowland has made public a "Dear Bill" letter in which President Eisenhower declared he never has expressed himself "one way or another" on the right-to-work issue.

Knowland is Republican candidate for governor and backing a ballot measure to enact a California right-work law. He said opponents of the initiative have put up billboards representing the President as being against such legislation.

"I have never expressed myself one way or another on whether any state should exercise this jurisdiction, feeling, as I do, that this should be determined by the citizens of each state," the President wrote.

"Any statement indicating or implying that I have done so is a misrepresentation of the facts," Eisenhower declared in the letter.

The President noted he had been asked to recommend repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act's clause permitting union shop contracts, except in states with right-to-work laws, so that states no longer would have jurisdiction to enact such laws.

He said he also had been urged to recommend enactment of a national right-to - work law which would "have the effect of denying to the states freedom of action in this field."

"I have rejected all of these suggested recommendations, for I am opposed to depriving the states of jurisdiction in this matter," President Eisenhower said.

Pickaway County To Get $39,115 In License Fees

Pickaway County's share in the final distribution of $9,821,187.10 in motor vehicle registration fees, collected in 1957, will be $39,115.43, according to information released today by George C. Braden, Registrar of the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles, who has just certified these figures to State Auditor James A. Rhodes for payment.

An additional distribution of $1,598,797.90 representing 9 per cent county and 5 per cent township road mileage funds will be released soon, Braden said.

This will bring the total state distribution of 1957 registration-fees to $60,572,685.00 as against $59,858,814.76 for the previous year.

U.S., Britain Plan Pullout

U.N. Aide Reports On Mideast Setup

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced yesterday that the United States and Britain had agreed conditionally to withdraw their troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

The secretary general said the United States had promised to complete the withdrawal from Lebanon by the end of October if the situation improves sufficiently. He said Britain would begin pulling out of Jordan in October and would complete the withdrawal as early as the situation allows.

He said he had appointed a special representative to work out arrangements to facilitate the troop withdrawals and that the representative, Pier P. Spinelli, a U.N. undersecretary, is now in Amman.

Hammarskjold said complete mutual confidence among the Arab countries has not yet been restored. But he expressed the belief "the implementation of the good neighbor policy will meet with growing success."

Unofficial reports in London said the British withdrawal from Jordan will be completed by Oct. 28.

The United States already has pulled out its Marines from Lebanon and it appeared that the remaining 7,500 U.S. soldiers would be departing soon.

Hammarskjold was cautious about making forecasts on Middle East stability. He said his effort to carry out the Assembly's peace resolution is "still at an early stage and it is therefore premature to pass a judgment on the degree of success it may meet."

School Art Workshop Set

Miss Joan Carr, art supervisor in Circleville schools, has planned an art workshop for Circleville elementary teachers. County teachers who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

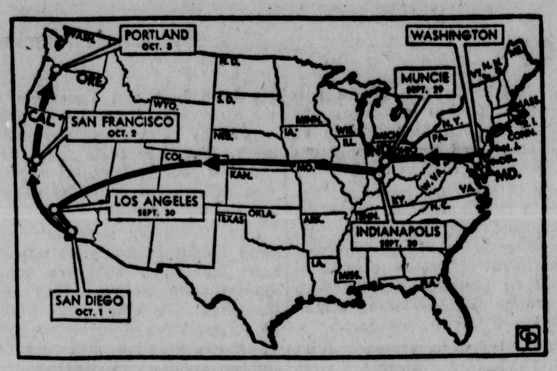

This workshop will be at the Court Street elementary school, October 23. There will be an afternoon session 1:30-4 p. m. and an evening meeting 7-9:30 p. m.

Miss Carr will conduct the workshop program which includes lecture sessions, motion pictures, demonstrations, display of teaching aids and materials, display of projects for different grade levels, and a teacher participation session in which teachers will do the actual work.

Midway in both meetings there will be a coffee break and short social period.

For Meditation

DESCANSO, Calif. (AP)— A couple who built a home, seeking peace and quiet in this rural Southern California community, added a small chapel at one end. It is always unlocked for any passerby who may want to rest, meditate or pray.

OFF AND GUNNING—This is the itinerary of Vice President Richard M. Nixon as he kicks-off his 1958 campaign swing in behalf of Republican congressional candidates and party fund raisers. He and his wife will leave Washington the morning of Sept. 29, and will travel by commercial airlines and chartered plane. (Central Press)

State Relief Fund Matching Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It will be at least a week before the state decides whether to make money available faster to match local relief funds.

Richard C. Minor, assistant director of the State Welfare Department, says the answer will be up to the governor.

But Minor will be out of town for a week, and Gov. C. William O'Neill says he will withhold his decision until he can discuss the situation with him.

The Ohio Municipal League has asked the state to return to the old system of paying its share of local relief expenditures in advance, on the basis of anticipated needs.

Pickaway County To Get $39,115 In License Fees

Pickaway County's share in the final distribution of $9,821,187.10 in motor vehicle registration fees, collected in 1957, will be $39,115.43, according to information released today by George C. Braden, Registrar of the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles, who has just certified these figures to State Auditor James A. Rhodes for payment.

An additional distribution of $1,598,797.90 representing 9 per cent county and 5 per cent township road mileage funds will be released soon, Braden said.

This will bring the total state distribution of 1957 registration-fees to $60,572,685.00 as against $59,858,814.76 for the previous year.

U.S., Britain Plan Pullout

U.N. Aide Reports On Mideast Setup

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced yesterday that the United States and Britain had agreed conditionally to withdraw their troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

The secretary general said the United States had promised to complete the withdrawal from Lebanon by the end of October if the situation improves sufficiently. He said Britain would begin pulling out of Jordan in October and would complete the withdrawal as early as the situation allows.

He said he had appointed a special representative to work out arrangements to facilitate the troop withdrawals and that the representative, Pier P. Spinelli, a U.N. undersecretary, is now in Amman.

Hammarskjold said complete mutual confidence among the Arab countries has not yet been restored. But he expressed the belief "the implementation of the good neighbor policy will meet with growing success."

Unofficial reports in London said the British withdrawal from Jordan will be completed by Oct. 28.

The United States already has pulled out its Marines from Lebanon and it appeared that the remaining 7,500 U.S. soldiers would be departing soon.

Hammarskjold was cautious about making forecasts on Middle East stability. He said his effort to carry out the Assembly's peace resolution is "still at an early stage and it is therefore premature to pass a judgment on the degree of success it may meet."

School Art Workshop Set

Miss Joan Carr, art supervisor in Circleville schools, has planned an art workshop for Circleville elementary teachers. County teachers who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

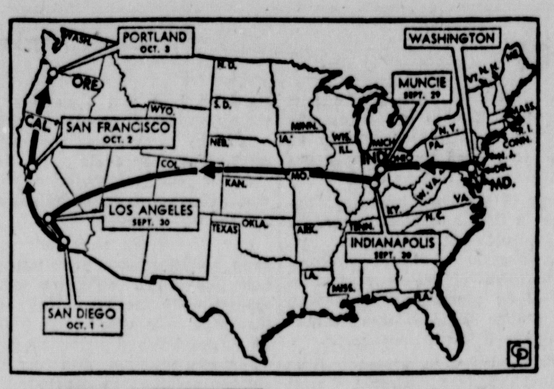

This workshop will be at the Court Street elementary school, October 23. There will be an afternoon session 1:30-4 p. m. and an evening meeting 7-9:30 p. m.

Miss Carr will conduct the workshop program which includes lecture sessions, motion pictures, demonstrations, display of teaching aids and materials, display of projects for different grade levels, and a teacher participation session in which teachers will do the actual work.

Midway in both meetings there will be a coffee break and short social period.

For Meditation

DESCANSO, Calif. (AP)— A couple who built a home, seeking peace and quiet in this rural Southern California community, added a small chapel at one end. It is always unlocked for any passerby who may want to rest, mediitate or pray.

OFF AND GUNNING—This is the itinerary of Vice President Richard M. Nixon as he kicks-off his 1958 campaign swing in behalf of Republican congressional candidates and party fund raisers. He and his wife will leave Washington the morning of Sept. 29, and will travel by commercial airlines and chartered plane. (Central Press)

State Relief Fund Matching Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It will be at least a week before the state decides whether to make money available faster to match local relief funds.

Richard C. Minor, assistant director of the State Welfare Department, says the answer will be up to the governor.

But Minor will be out of town for a week, and Gov. C. William O'Neill says he will withhold his decision until he can discuss the situation with him.

The Ohio Municipal League has asked the state to return to the old system of paying its share of local relief expenditures in advance, on the basis of anticipated needs.

AP Staffers Work over Globe To Bring The Herald Stories

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is Newspaper Week, set aside each year in observance of a basic American right, freedom of the press. This freedom makes Americans the best informed people in the world. In addition to its own staff, The Circleville Herald depends on The Associated Press for state, national and international news. You can recognize news from The Associated Press by the symbol (AP) at the beginning of a story.

The world we live in is almost 25,000 miles around the middle. Yet no spot on this vast globe is more than a few miles—sometimes a few blocks, sometimes next door—from a reporterready to tell the news as its happens.

It may be tragedy — a fire, a flood, an earthquake, a plane crash. It may be a fight in a night club, or an archeological discovery, a revolution, a rise in the price of steel, a drop in the price of coffee.

It may be a threatening speech or a waving olive branch, a rocket shot at the moon, a submarine diving under polar ice.

It may have happened only minutes ago. It may have happened thousands of miles away. But you pick up your newspaper and read all about it.

How? Because around the globe, thousands of men and women are working for you, gathering information and writing it. Thousands of miles of wires carry news to clicking teletypewriters that never are silent.

SPECIAL HIGH - fidelity wires transmit pictures that put you right at the scene. Radio teletype circuits span oceans and continents, bringing news in a fraction of a second from Tokyo, or San Francisco, or New York, or London, or Cairo, or Johannesburg, or Little America, or points between or beyond. Other radio circuits carry pictures around the world with equal speed.

It's a far cry from the days when communications were as primitive as jungle drums or Indian smoke signals, or carrier pigeons flying ashore from sailing ships inbound from Europe.

It's a fascinating story of men and machines, of speed, often of danger, and always of devotion to the principle of truth.

Newsgathering as we know it today began 110 years ago, with the organization of The Associated Press. Six New York newspapers, bitter rivals in competition for local news, joined together to form a cooperative agency to bring news from other parts of the country over the still-uncertain telegraph.

The movement spread rapidly. Now The Associated Press, still the world's largest news agency, serves some 1,750 newspapers and 2,000 radio and television stations in this country, thousands more in 80 foreign countries.

It maintains more than 100 bureaus in the United States, another 50 around the world. It uses 400,000 miles of leased wires in the United States alone, 25,000 more in Europe, plus five long range radio transmitters strategically located around the world.

But because The Associated Press is a cooperative — issuing no stock, paying no dividends, making no profits — these same newspapers and broadcasting stations around the world combine through AP to serve each other.

Is a Montana couple missing deep in Africa? Is a rich shah romancing a Hollywood star? Is a vacationing South Carolinian stranded on a mountain ledge in Oregon? From wherever it happens, an AP correspondent sends the news on its way.

BUT THE Associated Press is more than speed and distance.

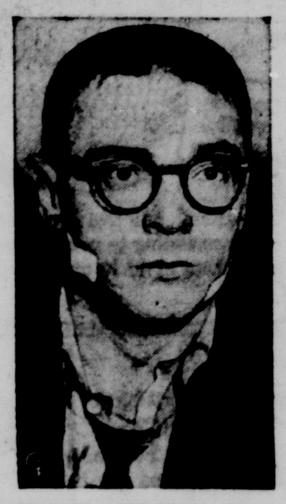

Over the years, it has become synonymous with accuracy, objectivity and fairness. It tells both sides of a story. It tells not only the facts, but interprets and explains so you can understand not only what is happening but why. The news is colorful, conversational, easy to read.

It boasts that no government, no business, no individual, can tell The AP what to report or how to report it. It may be a presidential press conference, a significant trend from Wall Street, the froth from Hollywood, the warning from Moscow, the no-hit ball game from Milwaukee, the space shoot from Cape Canaveral, the oddity from Keokuk, or Kalamazoo, or Carson City. If it's news, AP reports it.

Because The AP covers the world, its great networks are never idle. More than five million words flow over them each day, enough to fill 22 average-length novels.

Some news is interesting around the world, some is important only in the next town.

But whether it is news of government, or agriculture, or science, or art, or aviation, or education, or business, or sports, or simply an entertaining little vignette of life, it is laid speedily on your doorstep, to help keep you and your neighbors the best informed individuals anywhere, any time.

REPORTER AMBUSHED — Miller Davis, 37, Chicago Daily News reporter, got this way in investigating the pornographic picture racket in Chicago. He had accompanied police on several raids, and arranged to meet a man who posed as a policeman to go on another. He waited on a corner and two men drove up, leaped out of their car, slashed him and fled.

Underground Park Garage Granted Nod

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Underground Parking Commission—set up by the Legislature to build a huge parking garage under the State House grounds—won a round in court today in a suit to test the commission's legality.

The 10th District Court of Appeals ruled, in effect, that the legislative act establishing the commission was a valid one.

The suit against the commission was brought by Atty. Gen. William Saxbe. He questioned alleged corporate powers given the agency. He also questioned whether the state-owned garage would be exempt from real estate taxes.

The court did not rule on the constitutional question of an appointive state body being given corporate powers. Neither did its decision touch on the property tax exemption.

These constitutional questions may "and probably will have a review upon appeal," the court said.

The decision said:

"This court has given careful consideration to the arguments but does not feel they are sufficient to overturn this act of the Legislature (creating the commission)."

Saxbe said he has not decided whether to appeal the constitutional questions. Such an appeal would go to the Ohio Supreme Court.

William Knepper, commission chairman, said his agency will wait to see if another appeal is filed before proceeding with building the 1,056-car garage.

Bonds for the estimated 3½-million-dollar project are scheduled to be sold this fall. But the bond sale will have to await final decisions on the legal problems raised by Saxbe.

Ex-Movie Queen Has Some Regrets

Betty Blythe today.

By RALPH FRIEDMAN
Central Press Association Correspondent

Hollywood, Calif.—"I never look back," says Betty Blythe.

"If I did I'd cry an ocean of tears. However, if I had my life to live over again I'd have my husband and six children. When you're old, no glories of the past can make up for loneliness. And now — all I have are my two dogs. I live alone and walk my dogs and wait for work."

The still attractive 59-year-old "siren" star of the silent screen has lived in the shadows of loneliness for four years, since her husband, Paul Scardon, died. The two had been happily wed for 34 years.

"I sacrificed having children for the glamor of stardom," laments the tall, dignified actress, still active in the movies, as well as on television.

"When I was a glamor queen, in the heyday of what I call the 'gorgeous era,' stars weren't supposed to be married. Their fans wouldn't stand for it. Marriage wasn't regarded as proper for romantic figures. So I chose fame, until it was too late to have a family."

IN THE SILENT movie days, Miss Blythe appeared in 300 movies, and starred in 50 of them. She appeared in such famous films as "The Queen of Sheba," "The Darling of the Rich," "Jacob's Well," "Girl of the Limberlost" and "She."

"When I was a star,' Betty recalls, "my husband was introduced as my business manager. I couldn't admit to being married; I couldn't have babies. Now I tell the young chicks who are starring today to have babies. The industry will let them down; their families won't. I know what a stark, staring, blank world life can be when you're alone."

The years have given Betty Blythe a sense of humility that would have been completely alien to her when she was a star. "Oh, I was high and mighty in those days," she admits. "I was one of the great. And where are we now, with all the vainglorious notions we had of ourselves? What did our stuffed egos bring us? Life moved on; it didn't pause for us. Well, that's all done. I don't like self-pity."

Placing a still photo from one of her siren days on the table of her small apartment, she comments: "I haven't looked at this for a long, long time. Those old pictures don't interest me. I had to rummage through the closet to find this.

"I don't want to be like the once-great actress who spends every night sitting on a thick rug, with her pictures around her and, in the soft light of the room, relives the old days. Isn't that a nightmarish thing to consider?"

For Betty Blythe there is only work, the hope of work, and her two aging dogs. Her apartment is crammed full of citations and testimonials and loving cups she accumulated in her stardom days. However, she rarely glances at them.

"I put them up out of habit," Betty says. "I think I'll take them down some day and throw them away. They just remind me of the price I paid for emptiness."

Farm Product Prices Level Increases

This upturn halted a four-month decline, the Agriculture Department said today.

Primarily responsible for the increase were record high prices for grapefruit, near record prices for oranges, and increases for beef cattle, eggs, milk and cotton. Partially offsetting were lower prices for hogs, chickens and corn.

The mid-September level was nearly 5 per cent above a year earlier but about 17.6 per cent below the record high set in February 1951.

ARRESTS BROTHER — Doing his duty, Officer Marvin Jones slips handcuffs on his brother, Earl N. Jones, in a Hartford, Conn., delicatessen. Marvin and two fellow officers were dispatched there when someone reported hearing door break.

Medic Finds Russ Children Behave Better than Yanks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Russian children seem healthier than those in America—and they are better behaved, too.

So says Dr. Joseph Stokes, chief physician at Children's Hospital, University of Pennsylvania pediatrics professor, and head of the American Pediatric Society. He recently returned from a month in the Soviet Union.

"The Russians are doing a better job of preventive care for their children than we are," Dr. Stokes said in an interview.

Dr. Stokes suggested reasons for the better behavior: "The parents give their children a lot of affection. And there is a strong desire for approval by the group. As a result, the kids just seem to mind. So far as we could determine, there is very little juvenile delinquency."

Ashville Civic Club Slates Fall, Winter Fashion Show

The Ways and Means Committee of the Ashville Civic Club met recently at the home of chairman, Mrs. Glenn Rodgers to make final plans for the coming "Fashion Kick-off", a style show to be presented by Sharff's Women's Apparel and The Children's Shop, Circleville.

The Fall and Winter fashions of American designers for ladies, teens and school children will be shown in the Ashville School auditorium at 8 p. m. October 7. Several door prizes will be given and refreshments will be served by the Hospitality Committee. Tickets are on sale now from any club member or they may be purchased at the door that evening.

Other members serving on the Ways and Means Committee are Mrs. Wade Shreve, Mrs. Stanley Bowers, Mrs. George Gardner, Mrs. Warren Bastian and Mrs. Arthur Deal, Jr. The Hospitality Committee consists of Mrs. Robert Bausum, chairman, Mrs. Paul Cromley, Mrs. Felix Dore', Mrs. Fred Engle, Mrs. Frank Morrison and Mrs. Charles Helser.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Bastian, Decorating; Mrs. Bowers, Tickets; Mrs. Deal, Publicity; and Mrs. Shreve and Mrs. Gardner, Door Prizes.

Aid for Coddled Children Urged

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — An American university dean who thinks many children are overprotected says they can be toughened against mental illness if they are exposed to emotional experiences when they are young.

Dr. Edward G. McGavran of the University of North Carolina's Public Health School, told the Ontario Public Health Assn.'s annual meeting that shielding children from emotional strains is resulting in a population susceptible to mental illness when it is exposed to shocks later in life.

Electrical Union Membership Climbs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Membership in the International Brotherhood of Electrical workers has increased from 625,000 in 1954 to 735,000 in 1958 despite a more difficult organizing climate, President Gordon M. Freeman reported today.

His report was made to 2,200 delegates at the opening of the IBEW's 26th annual convention. The number of brotherhood locals was increased from 1,675 to 1,750 during the four years, he added.

Local Group To Assist at Church Meet

Several local people are to be among 300 who have been specially selected to help in various capacities at the circuit convention of Jehovah's Witnesses to be held at the state Fairgrounds in Columbus, October 10-12, according to Daniel E. Grubb, presiding minister of the Circleville congregation.

Grubb, 134 Rosewood Ave., will work in the trucking and equipment department. Mrs. Theron

A. C. MANERA JR.

Concklin, Laurelville, and Mrs. Edward Ladley, Route 2, Circleville, will work in the convention cafeteria.

Featured speaker of the three-day meet will be Angelo C. Manera, Jr., district supervisor of the Watchtower Society, who will deliver the keynote address "Expanding Our Ministry" on Friday evening, October 10. Highlight of the assembly will be Manera's talk to the public Sunday, on "The Watch Tower Society in God's Purpose."

Seventeen other ministers from the 21-congregation central Ohio circuit together with its circuit supervisor, Paul A. Allen, will complete the program roster.

The program is aimed as a follow-up of the international Witness convention in New York and to coach area minister-members as to their part in the expansion plans announced there. Some 2,500 from 40 central Ohio cities are expected.

Best Quarter Of Business Year Looming

Groth of Confidence Noted Since Low Point Reached Last April

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Business enters today what is widely expected to be the best quarter of the year. Confidence has been growing with the vigor of the recovery from last April's low point. And spending by federal, state and local governments is increasing. Inroads are at last being made into the total of the jobless.

If consumer spending continues to creep higher, factories can step up production and rehire laid off men.

But most consumers have been spending just about all they had left after taxes. True, the rate of savings has been up as the cautious watched the course of the recession, but that rate is still a very small part of total income.

What has held many consumers back from buying the things they want but can wait for is that they had taken on all the debt they could handle. Now they are thought to have paid off enough of it to be in position to buy more. Appliance dealers, for one group, say that is the case. And the auto makers fervently hope it is so.

But Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, warns today against expecting too much from the consumer or too big a jump in his spending. It says:

"Consumer markets, while basically strong, are far from exuberant. People are still buying carefully and are reported to be extremely price conscious. Likewise, looking to the future, most estimates today are that sales of the 1959 autos may run to 5½ million —a good year, but far from a banner one."

The bank also says the revival of business spending for new plant and equipment could still be some way off.

Noting the considerable excess productive capacity and still high unemployment, the bank economists point out that the gross national product — dollar value of total output of goods and services —will have to increase quite a bit to take up the slack.

The latest survey by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the department of commerce, on the other hand, shows that the long decline in business spending for new plant and equipment has ended. A slight increase is looked for in the fourth quarter that starts today.

Bell, Ohio Cities Plan Negotiations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Officials of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and representatives of Ohio cities fighting the company's request for a 28-million-dollar annual rate increase will begin negotiations Oct. 10 to try to reach a compromise.

The decision to seek a compromise of the dispute was reached Tuesday at a meeting of company officials and city representatives.

The cities are working out a range of income which they say is reasonable for Ohio Bell but the range has not been disclosed.

Hamilton Plant Strike Labeled as Premature

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—A short walkout of 900 workers ended abruptly at Hamilton's Fisher Body plant Tuesday and a spokesman for the United Auto Workers said the employees were apparently "a couple of days ahead of time on their strike." The plant is part of General Motors which is in contract negotiations with the UAW.

Tigers Prep For Hillsboro

Guard Asa Elsea Hit by Flu Bug

The Circleville Tigers, prepping for Hillsboro's invasion Friday night, concentrated on offense yesterday at the local fairgrounds practice field.

Coach Tom Bennett and assistant Dick Fisher put the first and second backfield units through a long phase of play running, emphasizing timing, handoffs and pitchouts. The CHS line worked on blocking assignments.

Most of the Tigers appeared in good physical shape, although guard and co-captain Asa Elsea was out of school with the flu yesterday. Coach Bennett said he has hopes that the hard-hitting lineman will be recovered and ready for action Friday night.

Hillsboro, although a loser in two of three games, can be expected to give the Tigers plenty of opposition here Friday night. Last year the Indians downed Circleville, 7-6, at Hillsboro.

Gomez Recalls Series Tension

It's More than Just Ball Game, Lefty Says

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A World Series game is different. The strategy may be the same, the baseball may look like that played during the regular season, but the tension is on a different level altogether.

The authority for this opinion is Vernon (Lefty) Gomez, one of baseball's greatest pitchers. He is the only man to have won six World Series games without any losses.

"The Series gave me the greatest thrill I ever got out of baseball," he said. "I was just as nervous in my last game as I was in my first."

Pitching for the New York Yankees Sept. 29, 1932, he beat the Chicago Cubs 5-2 with Lon Warnecke on the mound. Gomez wound up his major league career with the Braves, then in Boston.

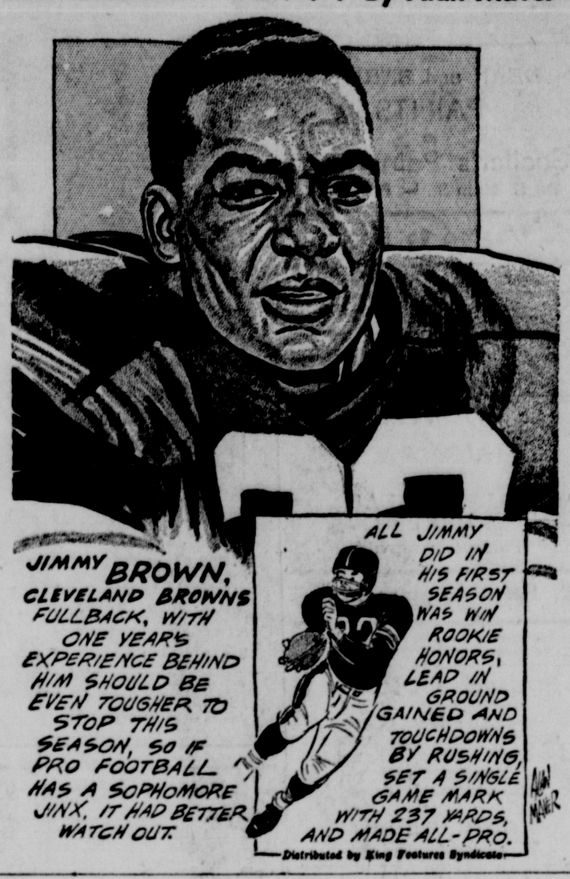

Now a salesman for a sporting goods company, he is trim but looks more like a professor than an ex-big leaguer.

"I feel the Series gets you in a different frame of mind than a regular season game," he said. "I don't suppose you are any more careful in the Series than you are in a regular season game, but you don't have the whole season to make up a mistake—it's just seven games at the most. You have to be extra careful because it's short.

"Bad breaks aren't any more a factor in the Series than normally.

"Players may act as if it is just another ball game, but a Series game isn't just that. It's a most important one. Not only financially for everyone concerned, but in the matter of pride."

BROWNS' MAN . . . . . By Alan Maver

Stengel Figures This Year's Series To Be Pitching Battle

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees figures the 1958 World Series which opens here today will be a pitchers' series.

"That Spahn wins 20 games for nine years," said Casey, "and who's going to tell me how to beat him? Who knows how?

"A man wins 20 for nine years has to be a great pitcher and one who knows how to pitch to right-handers and left-handers. So what good is it if you put in all right-handed batters against him or not?"

Warren Spahn, the Braves' ace who won 22 this season, matching Pittsburgh's Bob Friend for the National League high, was the Milwaukee starter today. Whitey Ford (14-7) was Stengel's choice, making it an all southpaw opener. Lew Burdette will start for the Braves in the second game.

"Take Burdette," Stengel said. "He makes everybody but the manager wrong because he wins 20 games over in that league this year, and he's only lost three since the All-Star Game.

"A lotta people tell you Burdette wasn't really a great pitcher and the way to beat him is don't put any left-handers against him. But his manager pitches him three times in the last Series, and who is it who beats us? Burdette. Beats us three times and we get beat.

"All those people tell me how Burdette can be beat, but I notice nobody's been able to do it yet over in that league."

Stengel then touched on his Yankees.

"We won the pennant because early in the season we get some rain and you think that might hurt us, but it helps us because I can pitch my two best, Ford and Turley, in almost all of those early games.

"And while I'm at it, Turley is my pitcher tomorrow in the second game. He won 21 for us and he was great."

Bob Turley, a right-hander, was the only consistent pitcher the Yankees had, and he went into a late slump. Whitey Ford began strong but of late has been hampered by a sore elbow.

Spahn Corrects 'Clown' Remark

MILWAUKEE (AP) —Southpaw Warren Spahn, starting Milwaukee pitcher in today's opening game of the World Series, insists he never used the term "a clown" to describe Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees.

Spahn, in an interview Monday, said Stengel once observed that he never would be a good pitcher. Stengel managed Spahn when they were with the Boston Braves in 1942.

Asked to describe Casey as manager with the Braves 16 years ago, Spahn was quoted as saying:

"He was nothing but a clown."

Disturbed by the published quotation Tuesday, Warren said, "I was misunderstood. What I actually said was that Casey, in those days, was always clowning around."

Cincy's Star Cager Shows Improvement

CINCINNATI (AP)—Remember Maurice Stokes, the magnificent ball - hawk for Cincinnati's pro basketball Royals? He has an anniversary today.

It was 20 days ago that he was struck down hard by sleeping sickness. It transformed a husky athlete at the peak of his career into a helpless hospital patient.

He can move his arm and legs a trifle now. And nod his head. And his mind is as alert as ever after the fog of the illness lifted.

But the only way he can communicate is to have a nurse at Christ Hospital or a relative reel off letters of the alphabet and he nods at the right one, spelling out words.

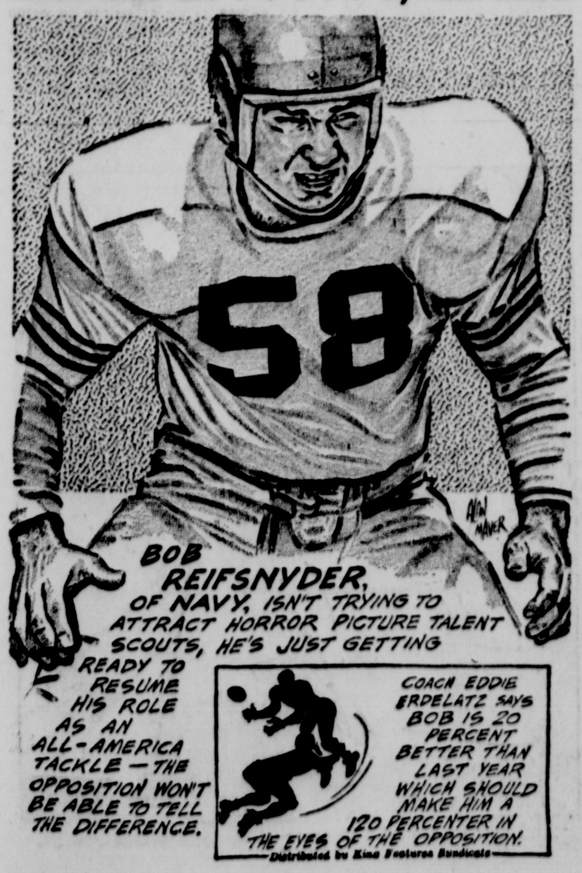

The Royals were near the end of the season last March 15 when Stokes was stricken on a plane flight here from Detroit.

An alert stewardess administered oxygen and he was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in nearby Covington, Ky. When he improved a little, he was shifted to Christ Hospital.

Stokes last year was 23 years old, a superbly-trained 6-foot-7 player who weighed 235 pounds. Before turning pro, he had starred for St. Francis College of Pennsylvania.

His hospital bills have mounted high. Workmen's compensation will help some and pro basketball has arranged a benefit doubleheader here next Oct. 21 to raise more money for him.

AP Guesspert Tries Again To Pick Winners

His Batting Average Runs .764, or Below Championship Form

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If you hit for .300 in the World Series you are a champ. If you hit for less than .800 in football selections you are a chump. Last week's record was 42 correct and 13 wrong for .764.

Here are this weekend's winners:

Oklahoma over Oregon: That new ball-bearing offense of the Sooners finds Oregon no more difficult than West Virginia last week.

Ohio State over Washington: The Buckeyes infantry should prevail even if Frank Kremblas doesn't heal in time.

Michigan State over Michigan: This is a family war but Michigan State's sophomores are the pick even though Michigan boasts one of the country's best plungers in John Herrnstein.

Army over Penn State: The Cadets bazooka offense no longer is a surprise but those two halfbacks, Dawkins and Anderson, will shock the Pennsylvania Lions enough.

Notre Dame over Southern Methodist: Don Meredith will scare the daylights out of the Irish but in the end they will revail by about the margin of a single touchdown.

Clemson over Maryland: The Carolina Tigers won their 100th victory under Coach Frank Howard last weekend. They start on their second century this weekend.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

EAST: Boston College over Villanova, Navy over Boston University, Yale over Brown, Bucknell over Carnegie Tech, Rutgers over Colgate, Cornell over Harvard, Dartmouth over Penn, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Princeton over Columbia.

MIDWEST: Wisconsin over Marquette, Houston over Cincinnati, West Virginia over Indiana, Kansas State over Utah State, Colorado over Kansas, Pittsburgh over Minnesota, Nebraska over Iowa State, Northwestern over Stanford, Tulsa over Arizona, Oklahoma State over Wichita, Iowa over Air Force.

SOUTH: Mississippi State over Tennessee, Vanderbilt over Alabama, Davidson over The Citadel, Illinois over Duke, Wake Forest over Florida State, Georgia Tech over Tulane, South Carolina over Georgia, Louisiana State over Hardin Simmons, Virginia Military over Richmond, Virginia Tech over William and Mary, North Carolina State over Virginia, Mississippi over Trinity of Texas.

SOUTHWEST: Miami over Baylor, North Texas State over New Mexico A&M, Purdue over Rice, Texas A&M over Missouri, Texas Christian over Arkansas, Texas over Texas Tech.

FAR WEST: Arizona State over West Texas State, Brigham Young over Colorado State University, New Mexico over Montana, Oregon State over UCLA, Utah over Idaho, Wyoming over Denver.

Sooners Set Pace In Total Offense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

To the surprise of no one, particularly West Virginia and Souh Carolina, Oklahoma and Army ranked 1-2 today in total offense according to National Collegiate Athletic Bureau statistics.

The Sooners, No. 1 in this week's Associated Press poll, swamped West Virginia 47-14 last Saturday, running up 559 yards overall in the process. The Cadets, with the "bazooka offense," humbled South Carolina 46-8 with 529 yards.

Third in overall offense is Michigan State, with 502 yards in its only game, a 32-12 victory over California. College of the Pacific is fourth with 458 yards average in two games, while Washington State has averaged 419 yards in its first two games.

Tigers Prep For Hillsboro

Guard Asa Elsea Hit by Flu Bug

The Circleville Tigers, prepping for Hillsboro's invasion Friday night, concentrated on offense yesterday at the local fairgrounds practice field.

Coach Tom Bennett and assistant Dick Fisher put the first and second backfield units through a long phase of play running, emphasizing timing, handoffs and pitchouts. The CHS line worked on blocking assignments.

Most of the Tigers appeared in good physical shape, although guard and co-captain Asa Elsea was out of school with the flu yesterday. Coach Bennett said he has hopes that the hard-hitting lineman will be recovered and ready for action Friday night.

Working with the first string backfield yesterday were left half Ray Phifer, right half Walt Arledge, quarterback Tom Greeno and fullback Larry Hannahs.

Hillsboro, although a loser in two of three games, can be expected to give the Tigers plenty of opposition here Friday night. Last year the Indians downed Circleville, 7-6, at Hillsboro.

Gomez Recalls Series Tension

It's More than Just Ball Game, Lefty Says

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A World Series game is different. The strategy may be the same, the baseball may look like that played during the regular season, but the tension is on a different level altogether.

The authority for this opinion is Vernon (Lefty) Gomez, one of baseball's greatest pitchers. He is the only man to have won six World Series games without any losses.

"The Series gave me the greatest thrill I ever got out of baseball," he said. "I was just as nervous in my last game as I was in my first."

Pitching for the New York Yankees Sept. 29, 1932, he beat the Chicago Cubs 5-2 with Lon Warnecke on the mound. Gomez wound up his major league career with the Braves, then in Boston.

Now a salesman for a sporting goods company, he is trim but looks more like a professor than an ex-big leaguer.

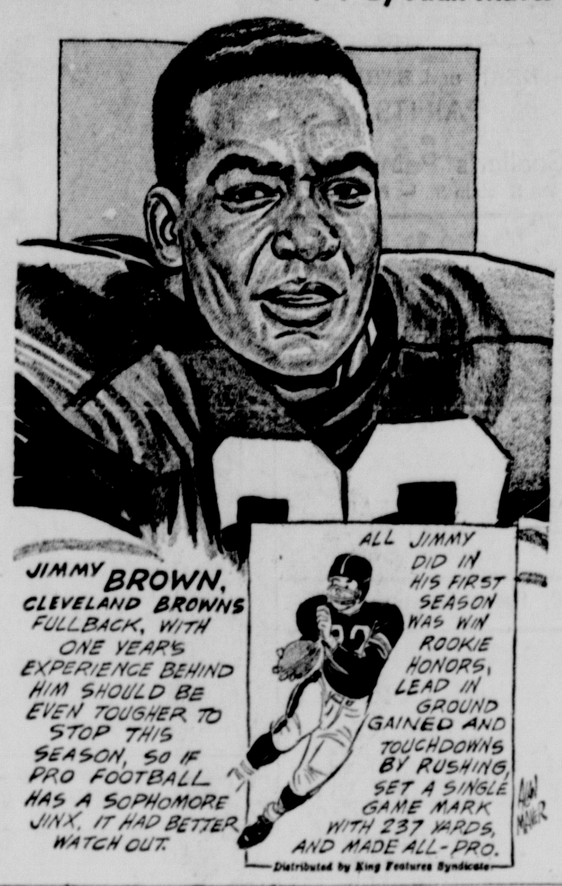

"I feel the Series gets you in a different frame of mind than a regular season game," he said. "I don't suppose you are any more careful in the Series than you are in a regular season game, but you don't have the whole season to make up a mistake—it's just seven games at the most. You have to be extra careful because it's short.

"Bad breaks aren't any more a factor in the Series than normally.

"Players may act as if it is just another ball game, but a Series game isn't just that. It's a most important one. Not only financially for everyone concerned, but in the matter of pride."

BROWNS' MAN . . . . . By Alan Maver

Stengel Figures This Year's Series To Be Pitching Battle

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees figures the 1958 World Series which opens here today will be a pitchers' series.

"That Spahn wins 20 games for nine years," said Casey, "and who's going to tell me how to beat him? Who knows how?

"A man wins 20 for nine years has to be a great pitcher and one who knows how to pitch to right-handers and left-handers. So what good is it if you put in all right-handed batters against him or not?"

Warren Spahn, the Braves' ace who won 22 this season, matching Pittsburgh's Bob Friend for the National League high, was the Milwaukee starter today. Whitey Ford (14-7) was Stengel's choice, making it an all southpaw opener. Lew Burdette will start for the Braves in the second game.

"Take Burdette," Stengel said. "He makes everybody but the manager wrong because he wins 20 games over in that league this year, and he's only lost three since the All-Star Game.

"A lotta people tell you Burdette wasn't really a great pitcher and the way to beat him is don't put any left-handers against him. But his manager pitches him three times in the last Series, and who is it who beats us? Burdette. Beats us three times and we get beat.

"All those people tell me how Burdette can be beat, but I notice nobody's been able to do it yet over in that league."

Stengel then touched on his Yankees.

"We won the pennant because early in the season we get some rain and you think that might hurt us, but it helps us because I can pitch my two best, Ford and Turley, in almost all of those early games.

"And while I'm at it, Turley is my pitcher tomorrow in the second game. He won 21 for us and he was great."

Bob Turley, a right-hander, was the only consistent pitcher the Yankees had, and he went into a late slump. Whitey Ford began strong but of late has been hampered by a sore elbow.

Spahn Corrects 'Clown' Remark

MILWAUKEE (AP) —Southpaw Warren Spahn, starting Milwaukee pitcher in today's opening game of the World Series, insists he never used the term "a clown" to describe Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees.

Spahn, in an interview Monday, said Stengel once observed that he never would be a good pitcher. Stengel managed Spahn when they were with the Boston Braves in 1942.

Asked to describe Casey as manager with the Braves 16 years ago, Spahn was quoted as saying: "He was nothing but a clown."

Disturbed by the published quotation Tuesday, Warren said, "I was misunderstood. What I actually said was that Casey, in those days, was always clowning around."

Cincy's Star Cager Shows Improvement

CINCINNATI (AP)—Remember Maurice Stokes, the magnificent ball - hawk for Cincinnati's pro basketball Royals? He has an anniversary today.

It was 20 days ago that he was struck down hard by sleeping sickness. It transformed a husky athlete at the peak of his career into a helpless hospital patient.

He can move his arm and legs a trifle now. And nod his head. And his mind is as alert as ever after the fog of the illness lifted.

But the only way he can communicate is to have a nurse at Christ Hospital or a relative reel off letters of the alphabet and he nods at the right one, spelling out words.

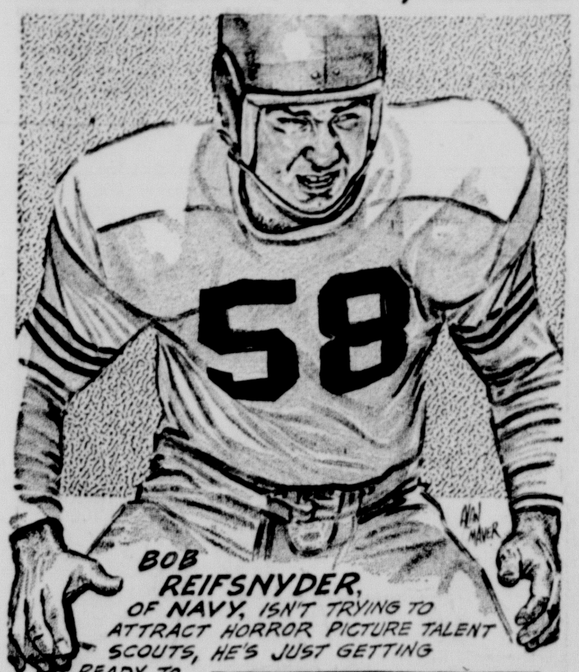

The Royals were near the end of the season last March 15 when Stokes was stricken on a plane flight here from Detroit.

An alert stewardess administered oxygen and he was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital in nearby Covington, Ky. When he improved a little, he was shifted to Christ Hospital.

Stokes last year was 23 years old, a superbly-trained 6-foot-7 player who weighed 235 pounds. Before turning pro, he had starred for St. Francis College of Pennsylvania.

His hospital bills have mounted high. Workmen's compensation will help some and pro basketball has arranged a benefit doubleheader here next Oct. 21 to raise more money for him.

AP Guesspert Tries Again To Pick Winners

His Batting Average Runs .764, or Below Championship Form

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If you hit for .300 in the World Series you are a champ. If you hit for less than .800 in football selections you are a chump. Last week's record was 42 correct and 13 wrong for .764.

Here are this weekend's winners:

Oklahoma over Oregon: That new ball-bearing offense of the Sooners finds Oregon no more difficult than West Virginia last week.

Ohio State over Washington: The Buckeyes infantry should prevail even if Frank Kremblas doesn't heal in time.

Michigan State over Michigan: This is a family war but Michigan State's sophomores are the pick even though Michigan boasts one of the country's best plungers in John Herrnstein.

Army over Penn State: The Cadets bazooka offense no longer is a surprise but those two halfbacks, Dawkins and Anderson, will shock the Pennsylvania Lions enough.

Notre Dame over Southern Methodist: Don Meredith will scare the daylights out of the Irish but in the end they will revail by about the margin of a single touchdown.

Clemson over Maryland: The Carolina Tigers won their 100th victory under Coach Frank Howard last weekend. They start on their second century this weekend.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

EAST: Boston College over Villanova, Navy over Boston University, Yale over Brown, Bucknell over Carnegie Tech, Rutgers over Colgate, Cornell over Harvard, Dartmouth over Penn, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Princeton over Columbia.

MIDWEST: Wisconsin over Marquette, Houston over Cincinnati, West Virginia over Indiana, Kansas State over Utah State, Colorado over Kansas, Pittsburgh over Minnesota, Nebraska over Iowa State, Northwestern over Stanford, Tulsa over Arizona, Oklahoma State over Wichita, Iowa over Air Force.

SOUTH: Mississippi State over Tennessee, Vanderbilt over Alabama, Davidson over The Citadel, Illinois over Duke, Wake Forest over Florida State, Georgia Tech over Tulane, South Carolina over Georgia, Louisiana State over Hardin Simmons, Virginia Military over Richmond, Virginia Tech over William and Mary, North Carolina State over Virginia, Mississippi over Trinity of Texas.

SOUTHWEST: Miami over Baylor, North Texas State over New Mexico A&M, Purdue over Rice, Texas A&M over Missouri, Texas Christian over Arkansas, Texas over Texas Tech.

FAR WEST: Arizona State over West Texas State, Brigham Young over Colorado State University, New Mexico over Montana, Oregon State over UCLA, Utah over Idaho, Wyoming over Denver.

Sooners Set Pace In Total Offense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

To the surprise of no one, particularly West Virginia and Souh Carolina, Oklahoma and Army ranked 1-2 today in total offense according to National Collegiate Athletic Bureau statistics.

The Sooners, No. 1 in this week's Associated Press poll, swamped West Virginia 47-14 last Saturday, running up 559 yards overall in the process. The Cadets, with the "bazooka offense," humbled South Carolina 46-8 with 529 yards.

Third in overall offense is Michigan State, with 502 yards in its only game, a 32-12 victory over California. College of the Pacific is fourth with 458 yards average in two games, while Washington State has averaged 419 yards in its first two games.

Pastrano Suffers TKO in London

LONDON (AP) —Strange things are happening to American heavyweight contenders on this side of the Atlantic.

Pastrano Suffers TKO in London

LONDON (AP) —Strange things are happening to American heavyweight contenders on this side of the Atlantic.

English Streets Have Story Names

These are actual street and road signs in England.

By STEVE LIBBY
Written for Central Press

Ever hear of the Land of Green Ginger . . . whip-ma-whop-ma-gate . . . Feather Bed lane? Odd and unusual names, to be sure—but all are names of streets in England.

How about the Land of Green Ginger? While this sounds like the setting for a children's storybook, it's a perfectly ordinary street in the busy port city of Hull and there's a perfectly ordinary reason for its name: 400 years ago the preserve known as green ginger (made of ginger and lemon juice) was compounded in the neighborhood.

Whip-ma-whop-ma-gate? It's in York, where, in early times, men and women who committed minor crimes were whipped and whopped for their misdemeanors.

Feather Bed lane is in Dartmour, and it's a stony tract which is in contrast to its name. Want more? How about Bessie's Beneath? It's in Cornwall and recalls the grim days when suicides were buried at crossroads.

Were there once dog kennels in the lane called Cow Wow in the village of South Cerney, Gloucestershire? Does Unthank road in Norwich commemorate the ingratitude of a former inhabitant? No one knows. However, most of the odd names for streets are clearly defined and logical.

* * *

LET'S TAKE, for example, Piccadilly—one of the most famed of all European thoroughfares in mid-London. The name has nothing whatsoever to do with picking daffodils. Instead, it was derived from Piccadilly hall, a house built in the 1600s by a tailor who specialized in making ruggles — then known as "picadils." (Kindly do not ask us what a "ruggle" is—we never saw one!)

In early England, as in the United States, it was a common practice to name streets after the trades which were practiced in them. Bread street, Milk street and Candlemaker row were — and still are — typical.

Then there's a prosperous Shoplatch street in Shrewsbury, where merchants made latches for shops. There's even a Brandy Hole lane in Chichester which brings back memories of old-time smugglers on felt-shod ponies riding in from the Sussex coast to deposit illicit kegs of brandy in a safe hiding-place.

In Bristol there's a lane called Pitch and Pay, said to have earned its name during the tragic days of the plague when country folk, afraid to carry their produce through the streets, "pitched" heir buter, eggs, milk and cheese at the top of the lane.

Then they waited at a distance until the good citizens of the coastal town collected the goods and paid the money by tossing it back to the farmers.

Pudding lane, in London, is the street where the Great Fire of 1666 began. There Again and Back Again lane is a warning to motorists that if one drives down this Bristol street, one will have to return the same way.

Oddsmakers Give Browns 7½--Point Edge over Steelers

CLEVELAND (AP) — The pro football oddsmakers are handing the biggest edge in this weekend's games to the Cleveland Browns for a game at Pitt Stadium against the Pitsburgh Steelers — 7 points.

It may well be, however, that 7½ points will represent a considerable portion of the scoring in that game, for it is between two clubs that place great stress on defense.

Last season the Steelers allowed opponents only 178 points, six more than the Browns yielded. And during six exhibition games Pittsburgh foes scored an average of only 15 a game, one under the average of Browns' opponents for the exhibition season.

Six weeks ago when the Browns and Steelers opened their exhibition season at Akron, the Browns won 10-0.

ASPIRIN TIME—Ticket manager of the Milwaukee Braves, Bill Eberly has the usual headache this time of the year. They're Series ticket requests, natch.

Hamilton Trying To Spruce Cops

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — City Manager Howard Wilson has started a round of long conferences with police brass to spruce up the department's morale and efficiency.

He talked for three hours Tuesday with all officers from chief to sergeants.

Wilson studied the department for three months and interviewed over 90 officers before reporting earlier this month that the department was shot full of favoritism, poor administration and low morale.

Gas Transmission Firm Hiking Its Rates Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 1.4 per cent increase in the wholesale price of gas charged by the Texas Gas Transmission Corp. to its customers in Ohio and seven other states goes into effect today. The increase was granted by the Power Commission today to offset an increase in the Louisiana Gather Tax. If a court test of the gather tax declares the increase invalid, the price hike is subject to refund.

Ohio Dairy Cattlemen Cop Honors at Show

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP)—Sumner, Henn & Son of West Manchester, Ohio, showed the reserve champion shorthorn bull at the National Dairy Cattle Congress here. A team from Pickerington, Ohio, was among eight awarded gold emblems in the national Future Farmers of America dairy cattle judging contests in which 40 states were entered.

Nickel Plate Hearing Slated In Cleveland

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Opponents of a proposal by the Nickel Plate Railroad to drop two overnight passenger trains operating between Cleveland and St. Louis will have an opportunity to voice their objections at a hearing in Cleveland Oct. 22. The Utilities Commission scheduled the hearing Tuesday. Preliminary hearings will be held Oct. 8 in Lima and Oct. 14 in Vermilion.

Hamilton Trying To Spruce Cops

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — City Manager Howard Wilson has started a round of long conferences with police brass to spruce up the department's morale and efficiency.

He talked for three hours Tuesday with all officers from chief to sergeants.

Wilson studied the department for three months and interviewed over 90 officers before reporting earlier this month that the department was shot full of favoritism, poor administration and low morale.

Gas Transmission Firm Hiking Its Rates Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 1.4 per cent increase in the wholesale price of gas charged by the Texas Gas Transmission Corp. to its customers in Ohio and seven other states goes into effect today. The increase was granted by the Power Commission today to offset an increase in the Louisiana Gather Tax. If a court test of the gather tax declares the increase invalid, the price hike is subject to refund.

40 Arraigned in Pickaway Common Pleas Court; 18 Plead Innocent

A total of 40 persons of the 46 indicted by the September term of the Pickaway County Grand Jury were arraigned yesterday in Common Pleas Court.

Three arraignments were deferred until Friday or later and three persons indicted failed to show up, thereby forfeiting bond.

Eighteen persons pleaded innocent to 20 indictments. A total of 22 persons pleaded guilty to 25 indictments.

Failing to appear for arraignment were Doris Waple, indicted for issuing a check with insufficient funds; Cecil Roshon, 50, Route 2, driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI), and Earl Dwight Wilson, OMVI.

They forfeited bond which was ordered posted by the Circleville Municipal Court and warrants were issued for their immediate arrest. The costs of apprehension by the Sheriff's Department will be deducted from their bond and the remainder will be refunded to them after disposition of their cases.

* * *

PERSONS having arraignments held over were Charles W. Elder, 62, Kingston, OMVI; Albert Louis Francis, 24, Lockbourne Air Force Base, second degree manslaughter, who is awaiting the Friday return of Tom A. Renick, his attorney, and Paul E. Conkle, 30, Route 4, unarmed robbery.

Conkle, indicted on a robbery charge, was also indicted for OMVI, for which he pleaded guilty. The final disposition of this case was continued.

Kenneth E. Dorman, 31, Greenfield, was sentenced from one to three years in the Ohio State Penitentiary for carrying a concealed weapon. He had appeared earlier yesterday and pleaded innocent.

Dorman was first bound over to the court from Circleville Municipal Court under $5,000 bond. This was later reduced by the common pleas court to $2,000. This morning Dorman's plea of innocent was noted and his bond raised to $3,000.

Dorman later changed his plea to guilty and was sentenced. He has a long record of previous violations and had served time, which was taken into consideration by the court.

Paul D. Young, pleaded guilty to permitting an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle. He was fined $50 and costs. Young was a friend of Van Roark, 43, Route 2, Ashville, who was indicted for OMVI and driving an automobile while his driver's license was under suspension.

* * *

PLEADING guilty to OMVI charges and receiving the usual $100 fine and costs, three-day sentence to the County Jail and six months suspension of their driver's licenses were Audrey Buskirk; Leo Fred Sines, 49, 551 N. Pickaway St.; Paul Edward Griffey; Jack LeMaster and Charles Hawk, 42, Chillicothe.

Kenneth L. Drake, Wilmington, Del., was sentenced to the OSP on counts of breaking and entering and grand larceny. He received sentences of from one to 15 years for the B and E charge and from one to seven years on the larceny count.

Judge William Ammer allowed the sentences to run concurrently due to the defendant's youth. Drake had recently been released from the Moundsville, W. Va. Penitentiary.

He pleaded guilty to the theft of a check writer and checks from the Hesler Laboratory, Orient, on he night of March 29. Drake committed the crimes while AWOL from Ft. Jackson, South Carolina. He has been discharged from the Army since.

Raymond Lee Fitch, 22, Route 2, Washington C. H., and Lloyd Moore, 19, Route 4, Washington C. H., were both placed on three years probation after pleading guilty.

Fitch was indicted for forgery and Moore for uttering a forged check. Judge Ammer took into consideration that the youths were up for their first criminal offense.

* * *

MOORE was almost sentenced when he stated he had been living with a girlfriend as he was questioned by Judge Ammer. Moore was granted probation only after his father and half-brother related they would house the boy and find work for him. Both young men were ordered not to establish checking accounts.

Milton Howsman, 20, 413 E. Ohio St., pleaded innocent to an OMVI indictment. He is presently serving a stiff sentence in the County Jail for a similar offense.

Also pleading innocent to OMVI indictments were Gaylord E. Dean, 26, Watt St.; Jack M. McGann, Waverly; Harold Goldsberry, Stoutsville; William Amos, 54, 408 E. Ohio St., and Avery Heeter, 52, 1227 S. Pickaway St., on two counts of OMVI.

Robert Bush, 27, Route 1, Ashville, changed his earlier plea of innocent to guilty and was placed on 18 months probation. He was indicted for selling mortgaged property purchased from Blue Furniture Co., 167 W. Main St.

Bush's attorney, Kenneth Robbins, threw Bush on the mercy of the court. The defendant has been in the County Jail since May. He was accused of selling $155 worth of merchandise which hadn't been paid for. Bush was ordered to make proper restituion to the Blue Furniture Co.

Robert Woodrow Kisor, 36, Wellston, pleaded guilty to an OMVI indictment. Due to the fact he had been previously convicted of this crime, he was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to the County Jail for five days. His driver's license was suspended for one year.

* * *

ROBIE EVANS JR., 27, Columbus, pleaded innocent to the indictment of rape. His plea was noted and he was recommitted to the County Jail under $5,000 bond.

Luther D. Sherman, 55, Columbus, changed his morning plea of innocent to guilty on the charge of OMVI yesterday afternoon. He was sentenced to five days in the County Jail, fined $150 and costs and lost his driving rights for six months.

Due to the fact that Sherman will have spent 15 weeks in confinemen tomorrow because of bond default his sentence, fine and costs were more than served out. He therefore was immediately released.

Sherman stated, when questioned by Judge Ammer, that he was 55 years old and had been arrested only five times in his life. The court took into consideration that Sherman had to drive to work and gave him partial restoration of his driving rights.

James Hysell, 23, Roue 4, was placed on three years probation on indictments of breaking and entering and forcing entrance into a safe. His brother, Paul, indicted for the same crimes, was sentenced to one to 15 years for breaking and entering and one to 20 years for forcing entrance into a safe.

Paul has a long record of similar crime and has serve time in state reformatories and penitentiaries. Both brothers pleaded guilty. Paul's plea of guilty came as a surprise since he had maintained his innocence throughout interrogation and his term in the County Jail, awaiting the meeting of th grand jury.

* * *

SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT officials stated that Paul had said he would plead guilty if his brother, James, who had implicated him in the crimes, was placed on probation, since it was his first offense.

Olan Wiggins, 33, Mt. Vernon, pleaded innocent to the ir ment of conveying articles into a jail to aid an escape. Wiggins is accused of slipping Paul Hysell razor blades while in the local bastille.

The elder Hysell on his successful escape efforts, stayed for four nights before finally turning over the blades to the Sheriff's Department and admitting the attempt. He had managed to saw out a square section of the vertical bars but was thwarted in his escape by heavier horizontal bars.

DAVID L. WRIGHT, 30, Adena, charged with forgery, changed his morning plea of innocent to guilty yesterday afternoon and his case was continued for further investigation.

Wright testified that he had a brain tumor for which he must undergo treatment. He said this tumor has caused him much trouble and that he has been in nine veteran's hospitals and the Lima State Hospital.

Wright has a past criminal record and recently was released from the Federal Reformatory, Terre Haute, Ind., where he related he underwent an operation for a brain tumor.

Judge Ammer stated that in the best interest of Wright he would contact the Lima hospital as to his case. Wright requested immediate disposition of the case, which was denied.

Edwin T. Sauliner and Paul J. Hoyt, stationed with the U. S. Air Force at Lockbourne were both placed on three years probation after pleading guilty to indictments of grand larceny.

Both airmen were indicted for theft of auto parts from Deercreek Auto Parts, Williamsport. It was the first offense for both youths.

* * *

PAUL THOMPSON, 34, Lockbourne, pleaded guilty to the indictment of non-support. He was placed on three years probation. He was cited on an affidavit signed by Betty Morgan.

Elmer Hill, 23, 173 Hayward Ave., pleaded innocent to the indictment of forgery. His plea was noted and his $500 bond continued. Paul Hurles, 31, and Virgil Boggs, 21, both of Washington C. H., pleaded innocent to indictments of armed robbery.

Hurles and Boggs were indicted for stickup with a blue steel pistol of Mom and Pop's Place, west of Williamsport. They were apprehended in their home town after a central Ohio search. Both men were sent back to the County Jail under $10,000 bond each.

Evan Miller, pleaded innocent to the indictment of issuing a check without a bank account. His plea was noted and his bond continued at $500. William LaRue, Ashville, pleaded guilty to the indictment of strongarm robbery of a Gooding concessionaire at the recent county fair.

He was placed on three years probation in view of the fact that this was his first major offense, although he had several minor charges.

Joseph W. Heeter, Circleville, changed his plea of innocent to guilty yesterday afternoon on the indictment of unarmed robbery. He was arrested along with LaRue and Conkle for the "rolling" of the Gooding concessionaire.

* * *

HEETER was placed on three years probation with the stipulation that he remain out of all places selling intoxicating liquor during his probationary period. Heeter admitted he was drinking the night of the robbery, but maintained throughout that he did not lay a hand on the concessionaire, although he drove the get-away car.

It was explained to Heeter that just as long as a person has part in the planning of the crime or a minor part in committing the crime, he is still just as guilty as the actual participants. He has previous arrests for assault and battery and intoxication.

Harold William Heise, S. Scioto St., and William Jackson, 31, Weldon Ave., both pleaded innocent to their indictments. Heise was indicted for grand larceny and Jackson for receiving stolen property.

Both men were implicated in the theft of a radio. Heise's bond was continued at $500 and Jackson's at $1,000.

11 Churches Plan UNICEF Treat Program

Ten Circleville churches and one church in Stoutsville will be cooperating in the Halloween "Trick or Treat" UNICEF program, according to Mrs. Glenn Snyder, coordinator of the project.

Mrs. Snyder said yesterday that at the second planning session held Monday evening at the Methodist Church three additional churches sent representatives making the grand total for Circleville 10 churches.

Mrs. Manley Carothers, Mrs. William Ankrom and Mrs. Dale DeLong represented Calvary EUB Church, and Edwin Richardson First EUB Church. From the Circleville Gospel Center Mrs. McRoberts and Mrs. Benis Lutz were in attendance. The Rev. Lowell Bassett represented St. John's EUB Church of Stoutsville, and indicated that this church planned to conduct the UNICEF program in Stoutsville.

To explain the work of UNICEF, Danny Kaye's film "Assignment Children" has been secured by Miss Margi Carmean from the Ohio Council of Church Women for use by church groups and other civic organizations. Mrs. Snyder booked on a "first-come, first-served" basis for the period October 8-12. The film is a 16 mm. production.

For unlimited use, a record on UNICEF called "The Good Ghosts of Halloween" has been secured, Mrs. Snyder said. Groups may use it any time between now and Halloween. She said that she will handle the booking of the film and recording and urged that all groups interested in showing either feature get a definite date from her as soon as possible.

40 Arraigned in Pickaway Common Pleas Court; 18 Plead Innocent

A total of 40 persons of the 46 indicted by the September term of the Pickaway County Grand Jury were arraigned yesterday in Common Pleas Court.

Three arraignments were deferred until Friday or later and three persons indicted failed to show up, thereby forfeiting bond.

Failing to appear for arraignment were Doris Waple, indicted for issuing a check with insufficient funds; Cecil Roshon, 50, Route 2, driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI), and Earl Dwight Wilson, OMVI.

They forfeited bond which was ordered posted by the Circleville Municipal Court and warrants were issued for their immediate arrest. The costs of apprehension by the Sheriff's Department will be deducted from their bond and the remainder will be refunded to them after disposition of their cases.

* * *

PERSONS having arraignments held over were Charles W. Elder, 62, Kingston, OMVI; Albert Louis Francis, 24, Lockbourne Air Force Base, second degree manslaughter, who is awaiting the Friday return of Tom A. Renick, his attorney, and Paul E. Conkle, 30, Route 4, unarmed robbery.

Conkle, indicted on a robbery charge, was also indicted for OMVI, for which he pleaded guilty. The final disposition of this case was continued.

Kenneth E. Dorman, 31, Greenfield, was sentenced from one to three years in the Ohio State Penitentiary for carrying a concealed weapon. He had appeared earlier yesterday and pleaded innocent.

Dorman was first bound over to the court from Circleville Municipal Court under $5,000 bond. This was later reduced by the common pleas court to $2,000. This morning Dorman's plea of innocent was noted and his bond raised to $3,000.

Dorman later changed his plea to guilty and was sentenced. He has a long record of previous violations and had served time, which was taken into consideration by the court.

Paul D. Young, pleaded guilty to permitting an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle. He was fined $50 and costs. Young was a friend of Van Roark, 43, Route 2, Ashville, who was indicted for OMVI and driving an automobile while his driver's license was under suspension.

* * *

PLEADING guilty to OMVI charges and receiving the usual $100 fine and costs, three-day sentence to the County Jail and six months suspension of their driver's licenses were Audrey Buskirk; Leo Fred Sines, 49, 551 N. Pickaway St.; Paul Edward Griffey; Jack LeMaster and Charles Hawk, 42, Chillicothe.

Kenneth L. Drake, Wilmington, Del., was sentenced to the OSP on counts of breaking and entering and grand larceny. He received sentences of from one to 15 years for the B and E charge and from one to seven years on the larceny count.

Judge William Ammer allowed the sentences to run concurrently due to the defendant's youth. Drake had recently been released from the Moundsville, W. Va. Penitentiary.

He pleaded guilty to the theft of a check writer and checks from the Hesler Laboratory, Orient, on he night of March 29. Drake committed the crimes while AWOL from Ft. Jackson, South Carolina. He has been discharged from the Army since.

Raymond Lee Fitch, 22, Route 2, Washington C. H., and Lloyd Moore, 19, Route 4, Washington C. H., were both placed on three years probation after pleading guilty.

Fitch was indicted for forgery and Moore for uttering a forged check. Judge Ammer took into consideration that the youths were up for their first criminal offense.

* * *

MOORE was almost sentenced when he stated he had been living with a girlfriend as he was questioned by Judge Ammer. Moore was granted probation only after his father and half-brother related they would house the boy and find work for him. Both young men were ordered not to establish checking accounts.

Milton Howsman, 20, 413 E. Ohio St., pleaded innocent to an OMVI indictment. He is presently serving a stiff sentence in the County Jail for a similar offense.

Also pleading innocent to OMVI indictments were Gaylord E. Dean, 26, Watt St.; Jack M. McGann, Waverly; Harold Goldsberry, Stoutsville; William Amos, 54, 406 E. Ohio St., and Avery Heeter, 52, 1227 S. Pickaway St., on two counts of OMVI.

Robert Bush, 27, Route 1, Ashville, changed his earlier plea of innocent to guilty and was placed on 18 months probation. He was indicted for selling mortgaged property purchased from Blue Furniture Co., 167 W. Main St.

Bush's attorney, Kenneth Robbins, threw Bush on the mercy of the court. The defendant has been in the County Jail since May. He was accused of selling $155 worth of merchandise which hadn't been paid for. Bush was ordered to make proper restituion to the Blue Furniture Co.

Robert Woodrow Kisor, 36, Williston, pleaded guilty to an OMVI indictment. Due to the fact he had been previously convicted of this crime, he was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to the County Jail for five days. His driver's license was suspended for one year.

* * *

ROBIE EVANS JR., 27, Columbus, pleaded innocent to the indictment of rape. His plea was noted and he was recommitted to the County Jail under $5,000 bond.

Luther D. Sherman, 55, Columbus, changed his morning plea of innocent to guilty on the charge of OMVI yesterday afternoon. He was sentenced to five days in the County Jail, fined $150 and costs and lost his driving rights for six months.

Due to the fact that Sherman will have spent 15 weeks in confinemen tomorrow because of bond default his sentence, fine and costs were more than served out. He therefore was immediately released.

Sherman stated, when questioned by Judge Ammer, that he was 55 years old and had been arrested only five times in his life. The court took into consideration that Sherman had to drive to work and gave him partial restoration of his driving rights.

James Hysell, 23, Roue 4, was placed on three years probation on indictments of breaking and entering and forcing entrance into a safe. His brother, Paul, indicted for the same crimes, was sentenced to one to 15 years for breaking and entering and one to 20 years for forcing entrance into a safe.

Paul has a long record of similar crime and has serve time in state reformatories and penitentiaries. Both brothers pleaded guilty. Paul's plea of guilty came as a surprise since he had maintained his innocence throughout interrogation and his term in the County Jail, awaiting the meeting of th grand jury.

* * *

SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT officials stated that Paul had said he would plead guilty if his brother, James, who had implicated him in the crimes, was placed on probation, since it was his first offense.

Olan Wiggins, 33, Mt. Vernon, pleaded innocent to the ir ment of conveying articles into a jail to aid an escape. Wiggins is accused of slipping Paul Hysell ar w blades while in the local bastille.

The elder Hysell on his successful escape efforts, served for four nights before finally turning over the blades to the Sheriff's Department and admitting the attempt. He had managed to saw out a square section of the vertical bars but was thwarted in his escape by heavier horizontal bars.

DAVID L. WRIGHT, 30, Adena, charged with forgery, changed his morning plea of innocent to guilty yesterday afternoon and his case was continued for further investigation.

Wright testified that he had a brain tumor for which he must undergo treatment. He said this tumor has caused him much trouble and that he has been in nine veteran's hospitals and the Lima State Hospital.

Wright has a past criminal record and recently was released from the Federal Reformatory, Terre Haute, Ind., where he related he underwent an operation for a brain tumor.

Judge Ammer stated that in the best interest of Wright he would contact the Lima hospital as to his case. Wright requested immediate disposition of the case, which was denied.

Edwin T. Sauliner and Paul J. Hoyt, stationed with the U. S. Air Force at Lockbourne were both placed on three years probation after pleading guilty to indictments of grand larceny.

Both airmen were indicted for theft of auto parts from Deercreek Auto Parts, Williamsport. It was the first offense for both youths.

* * *

PAUL THOMPSON, 34, Lockbourne, pleaded guilty to the indictment of non-support. He was placed on three years probation. He was cited on an affidavit signed by Betty Morgan.

Elmer Hill, 23, 173 Hayward Ave., pleaded innocent to the indictment of forgery. His plea was noted and his $500 bond continued. Paul Hurles, 31, and Virgil Boggs, 21, both of Washington C. H., pleaded innocent to indictments of armed robbery.

Hurles and Boggs were indicted for stickup with a blue steel pistol of Mom and Pop's Place, west of Williamsport. They were apprehended in their home town after a central Ohio search. Both men were sent back to the County Jail under $10,000 bond each.

Evan Miller, pleaded innocent to the indictment of issuing a check without a bank account. His plea was noted and his bond continued at $500. William LaRue, Ashville, pleaded guilty to the indictment of strongarm robbery of a Gooding concessionaire at the recent county fair.

He was placed on three years probation in view of the fact that this was his first major offense, although he had several minor charges.

Joseph W. Heeter, Circleville, changed his plea of innocent to guilty yesterday afternoon on the indictment of unarmed robbery. He was arrested along with LaRue and Conkle for the "rolling" of the Gooding concessionaire.

* * *

HEETER was placed on three years probation with the stipulation that he remain out of all places selling intoxicating liquor during his probationary period. Heeter admitted he was drinking the night of the robbery, but maintained throughout that he did not lay a hand on the concessionaire, although he drove the get-away car.

It was explained to Heeter that just as long as a person has part in the planning of the crime or a minor part in committing the crime, he is still just as guilty as the actual participants. He has previous arrests for assault and battery and intoxication.

Harold William Heise, S. Scioto St., and William Jackson, 31, Weldon Ave., both pleaded innocent to their indictments. Heise was indicted for grand larceny and Jackson for receiving stolen property.

Both men were implicated in the theft of a radio. Heise's bond was continued at $500 and Jackson's at $1,000.

11 Churches Plan UNICEF Treat Program

Ten Circleville churches and one church in Stoutsville will be cooperating in the Halloween "Trick or Treat" UNICEF program, according to Mrs. Glenn Snyder, coordinator of the project.

Mrs. Snyder said yesterday that at the second planning session held Monday evening at the Methodist Church three additional churches sent representatives making the grand total for Circleville 10 churches.

Mrs. Manley Carothers, Mrs. William Ankrom and Mrs. Dale DeLong represented Calvary EUB Church, and Edwin Richardson First EUB Church. From the Circleville Gospel Center Mrs. McRoberts and Mrs. Benis Lutz were in attendance. The Rev. Lowell Bassett represented St. John's EUB Church of Stoutsville, and indicated that this church planned to conduct the UNICEF program in Stoutsville.

To explain the work of UNICEF, Danny Kaye's film "Assignment Children" has been secured by Miss Margi Carmean from the Ohio Council of Church Women for use by church groups and other civic organizations. Mrs. Snyder booked on a "first-come, first-served" basis for the period October 8-12. The film is a 16 mm. production.

For unlimited use, a record on UNICEF called "The Good Ghosts of Halloween" has been secured, Mrs. Snyder said. Groups may use it any time between now and Halloween. She said that she will handle the booking of the film and recording and urged that all groups interested in showing either feature get a definite date from her as soon as possible.
